joyously glorify Your name in every generation.

Praise GOD from the heavens; give praise on high.

Give praise, all you angels, give praise, all divine hosts.

Give praise, sun and moon, give praise, all bright stars.

Give praise, highest heavens, and you waters that are above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of GOD—who commanded that they be created, and who made them endure forever, establishing an order that shall never change.

Praise GOD, O you who are on earth, all sea monsters and ocean depths, fire and hail, snow and smoke, storm wind that executes God's command, all mountains and hills, all fruit trees and cedars,
all wild and tamed animals, creeping things and winged birds, all kings and peoples of the earth, all princes of the earth and its judges, youths and maidens alike, old and young together.

After the departure of the Sabbath we approach You [in prayer]
Incline Your ear from on high You Who are enthroned upon praises
Listen to the song and to the prayer

Raise Your mighty, right hand to act valiantly
For the righteous one, who was bound and in whose stead a ram was slain
Shield his descendants as they cry to You while it is yet night
Listen to the song and to the prayer

Listen to the song, to the song and to the prayer

Turn to those who seek You when they seek Your Presence
Be accessible to them from Your Heavenly Abode
And to the cry of their supplication close not Your ear
Listen to the song and to the prayer

Listen...

They tremble and quake at the day of Your arrival
They are panic-struck as a woman giving birth the first time from the burning wrath You carry,
O' please, wipe away their filth That they may praise Your wonders
Listen to the song and to the prayer

Listen...

You are the Creator of all that is formed
You prepared from of old a remedy to save them from distress
By bestowing undeserved grace upon them from Your hidden treasure
Listen to the song and to the prayer

Listen...
