

Subject: A Life Changing Choice...

Hey Mr. Barker,

Your extreme positivity, efforts to help other fathers get fit, and massive Instagram following are a combination for success.

Yet, from the eyes of a Marketing Specialist, there are many ways to enhance your customers' desire to work with you.

We live in a highly-volatile economy which makes maintaining your business and reaching your goals in growth challenging.

That's why I am reaching out to you.

By working together, I can help your business maintain its current success and potentially explode in clients and cash flow all thanks to a crucial marketing skill I have learnt.

I have a question for you, without your business can your family survive and thrive?

Now it's time for the "Alpha Dad" to make an alpha decision,

Will you learn more about this growth-inducing opportunity with me in a call?

The choice is yours...

Glowing Regards,
Weston Gustafson
