

Third Quarter Alford's English II Reading Challenge

Name: _____

Your goal for this project is to earn points per reading challenge you complete. You are not expected to try and complete the entire challenge, only enough to get the points you want for your grade (maximum grade allowed is 115). This will count as a major test grade. You will grade each reading A - F based on how much you enjoyed it. You will also add your signature and the signature of a parent/guardian verifying that you did indeed read the chosen assignments. You must properly capitalize and punctuate all titles. Readings we do as a class do not count toward this assignment.

Reading Assignment	Point Value	Title and author	The grade you give this reading
A book that became a movie (underline title)	40
A book by a female author (underline title)	40
A book by a male author (underline title)	40
A short story (put title in quotation marks)	15
Lyrics to a song (put title in quotation marks)	10
A nonfiction book (underline title)	40
A book from the Bible or some other religious text (no punctuation for the title)	20
A book about sports (underline title)	40

A fantasy novel (underline title)	40
A mystery novel (underline title)	40
A book more than 400 pages (underline title)	60
A book more than 300 pages (underline title)	45
A book more than 200 pages (underline title)	30
A comic book (underline title and issue number)	15
A graphic novel (underline title)	30
The front and back and sides of a cereal box (no punctuation needed)	10
A Wikipedia article (put the subject in quotation marks)	15
A news article (put headline/title in quotation marks)	15
20 recipes from a cookbook (underline title) +5 - +10 bonus for cooking the recipe and sending me pictures of the process and finished dish	20

This assignment will not be accepted without the following signatures verifying that you did complete the above reading assignments.

Student Signature

Parent/Guardian Signature