

Out of Context: Emperor's Domination (Nine Worlds) Supplement

V.025 By "Chanc-Cellor"

This document can be used as a supplement in any Jump that would not otherwise have "Emperor's Domination" cultivation/items/etc within its continuity.

By taking this Supplement you have chosen to be "Nine Worlds Cultivator" and you will enter into that continuity as a Drop-In awakening in a black robe somewhere safe in your Jump of choice.

+1000 CP

If this Supplement is instead taken as an Isolated Jump you may select a setting of your choice even if it doesn't have a Jump Document and use this document as a ten year long Jump.

Origin:

Pick your cultivation background and eventual end levels here, you can be independent or tied to the Dark Crow in some ways.

Independent Cultivator

In the boundless expanse of the Nine Worlds, a cultivator is one who dares to challenge the heavens and command the Grand Dao. To walk this path, one must master the intricate triad of Fate Palace, Life Wheel, and Physique. These three are the cornerstone of cultivation, each inseparably linked, forming a cycle that defines the cultivator's strength and longevity.

Dark Crow's Karmic Tie [Requires Dark Crow]

Long ago, an ancestor of yours crossed paths with the Dark Hand behind the Curtain—a being who wields the weight of countless epochs. Through this encounter, a karmic bond was forged, tethering your lineage to the enigmatic Dark Crow. Now, the Dark Crow has sought you out, its gaze piercing through the river of time. This is no mere coincidence; it is karma fulfilled. In its inscrutable wisdom, the Dark Crow has chosen to settle this ancient debt by bestowing upon you gifts and knowledge that remain hidden to the rest of the world.

Dark Crow's Student (200CP) [Requires Dark Crow]

In the eyes of the Dark Crow, few are worthy of recognition, let alone tutelage. Yet within you lies a rare spark—a potential buried beneath the sands of time and mediocrity. This spark, invisible to the world but unmistakable to the Crow, has earned you a place as its student.

Perks:

Note:

To get a Booster: Perk you will need to purchase the complimentary Perks as an example:

Almost Unique -??? CP

Something Rare Booster: Something Unique

In order to get the Perk Something Unique, you need to take both the Almost Unique Perk that it follows and the Something Rare Perk that is commented before the boosted Perk.

General Perks:

Cultivation:

To embark on the path of cultivation is to step into the endless journey of transcending mortality and grasping the Grand Dao. You begin at Palace Foundation, the first step in the long road to immortality. With the interwoven harmony of your Fate Palace, Life Wheel, and Physique, you absorb Spirit Energy, refining it to ascend through the stages of cultivation. See Notes for Cultivation levels.

Life Wheel – (Free/100/200/400/600/800)

A tree has its growth rings; a cultivator has their Life Wheel. Hidden within the depths of your being, the Life Wheel is a spinning light that determines the vitality of your Blood Energy and the span of your longevity. Though invisible to mortal eyes, a trained cultivator can perceive their Life Wheel's brilliance, and with successful cultivation, its radiant form manifests behind their head as an emblem of their strength.

The quality of your Life Wheel not only dictates the potential length of your life but also serves as the foundation of your blood energy and resilience. However, great power carries equal risk—reckless overexertion of Blood Energy may irreparably damage your Life Wheel, reducing your vitality and lifespan.

Life Wheel Tiers

Each purchase elevates your Life Wheel to a higher tier, granting greater vitality, resilience, and longevity:

- Free: Mortal – The spark of longevity, finite and fragile.
- 100 CP: Houtian – A strengthened Life Wheel
- 200 CP: Xiantian – A transcendent Life Wheel and vigor.
- 400 CP: King – A Life Wheel capable of supporting a ruler's might, radiant and unyielding.
- 600 CP: Saint – A semi-divine Life Wheel, its radiance carving your name among legends.
- 800 CP: Immortal – A Life Wheel that defies mortal limits, the pinnacle of longevity and vitality.

Note: An Immortal Life Wheel requires taking the Heavenly Extermination drawback.

Fate Palace (Free/100/200/400/600/800)

The Fate Palace is the beacon of a cultivator's potential, the sacred chamber that defines their aptitude and talent for comprehending the profound mysteries of the Grand Dao. Unlike the Physique, which can be refined and enhanced, the Fate Palace's level is determined at birth. This innate limitation marks it as the foundation of cultivation, for while a powerful Physique grants strength, only a refined Fate Palace unlocks the ability to master Merit Laws and forge a personalized path in the Dao.

Cultivators regard the Fate Palace with the utmost reverence, for without its guidance, even the strongest body cannot ascend to the heavens. It is the key to understanding, the compass pointing toward the higher realms of cultivation.

Fate Palace Tiers

Each purchase elevates your innate aptitude, increasing your ability to master profound truths and ascend the ranks of cultivation:

- Free: Mortal
- 100 CP: Houtian
- 200 CP: Xiantian
- 400 CP: King
- 600 CP: Saint
- 800 CP: Immortal

Note: An Immortal Fate Palace requires taking the Heavenly Extermination drawback.

Shop System (100 CP)

In your journey as a cultivator, resources are as vital as talent. With the Shop System, you gain access to a specialized shop seamlessly connected to your Warehouse. This shop serves as a treasure trove for cultivation, alchemy, forging, and other arts, offering a constantly rotating inventory of rare and valuable materials.

The shop's offerings are unpredictable, with new items appearing monthly, ensuring a dynamic and varied selection for your needs. The inventory is restocked daily, so even amidst the unpredictability, you will never find yourself entirely without options. Transactions are conducted using Refined Jades, the universal currency of cultivators.

Potential Inventory

- Spirit Medicines
- Life Rings.
- Dao Bones
- Beast Marrows
- Destiny Stones
- Grand Dao Treasure Metals

This shop ensures you have access to the lifeblood of cultivation, providing the tools necessary to carve your legend into the annals of history.

Note: The shop's inventory is randomized, offering both common and extraordinary items. While luck may play a role, the persistent restocking ensures no visit is wasted.

Bazaar Street (200 CP)

Once every ten years, a mysterious door appears within your Warehouse. Beyond this door lies an independent world—a single, seemingly endless street stretching for trillions of miles. Known as Bazaar Street, it is a place of boundless opportunity and risk, where countless races, sects, and individuals gather to trade, sell, and barter.

The wares found here are as varied as the denizens who offer them. From common spirit medicines to Immortal Emperor True Treasures, from mortal trinkets to the fabled 10th World Items, every item imaginable—and some beyond imagination—can be found here.

Yet, the prices and transactions are as unpredictable as the sellers:

- True Pricing: Items sold at their exact value.
- Overpriced: Wares sold at exorbitant rates.
- Underpriced: Hidden treasures sold for a pittance.
- Trade Only: Goods available only through unique exchanges.
- Barter: Sellers open to negotiation and haggling.

Potential Sellers

The street is populated by a colorful assortment of merchants:

- Honest traders who uphold integrity.
- Proud sect disciples offering their sect's treasures.
- Sly conmen eager to exploit the unwary.
- Eccentric individuals with otherworldly artifacts and secrets.

Each visit is an adventure, with the layout, merchants, and items changing every time.

However, all aspects of the Bazaar—its people, items, and environment—are immune to outside powers and perks. No trickery or force can alter the nature of this enigmatic place.

Rules of the Bazaar

- The door remains open for three days each decade or new Jump whichever comes first.
- Whatever you acquire is yours to keep, provided you can pay the price or strike a deal.

Adaption (400 CP)

Cultivation is the art of harmonizing with the world's energies, but you have transcended the ordinary boundaries of this practice. With Adaption, you gain the unparalleled ability to transmute other forms of supernatural energy into Spirit Energy, seamlessly integrating them into your cultivation. Whether it is Chakra, Nen, Mana, or any other mystical force, all can be refined and utilized as if they were innate Spirit Energy. All supernatural energies can be converted into Spirit Energy, fueling your cultivation, techniques, and powers. This allows you to tap into otherwise inaccessible sources of energy from any world you visit. Perks and items from this Jump that interact with Spirit Energy adapt to affect other supernatural energies. For example: A jewel that replenishes Spirit Energy would also replenish Nen in a Hunter X Hunter jump. The conversion process is automatic but does not inherently increase the total energy available to you. It only allows you to access, integrate, and use the energy in its Spirit Energy form. The adaptability does not grant mastery over the original energy's source techniques or methodologies—it simply allows their essence to bolster your cultivation.

Divine Eyes (600 CP)

The Divine Eyes are a tool of unparalleled perception, a gateway to the mysteries of the Ten Thousand Dao. While the eyes themselves serve as the conduit, the true power lies within the mind and soul. By unlocking the Divine Eyes, you gain the ability to peer beyond the veil of the mundane, unraveling the truths hidden from ordinary sight. The power of the Divine Eyes is not limited to physical sight. Their effectiveness depends on the clarity of your mind and the strength of your soul. The more profound your understanding of the Grand Dao, the greater the capabilities of your Divine Eyes. They do not merely reveal—they empower you to comprehend.

- Piercing Illusions: See through simple deceptions, illusions, and false realities with ease.
- Hypnotic Gaze: Exert your will upon weak-willed mortals, swaying their thoughts and actions with but a glance.
- Zooming Vision: Focus your sight to extreme distances or into the smallest details, whether gazing at the farthest horizon or the intricate patterns of a grain of sand.
- Energy Identification: Discern supernatural energies, beings, and artifacts, unraveling their nature and purpose at a glance.

Immortal Soulbone (800CP)

Among the legendary treasures of cultivation, the Immortal Soulbone is unparalleled, a divine artifact born of eternity. Embedded between the brows of its bearer, it serves as the apex of Immortal Bones, a key to unlocking the profound mysteries of the cosmos and wielding immeasurable power. Possessing the Immortal Soulbone elevates a cultivator to an entirely new realm of potential, granting abilities that defy the natural order.

Abilities of the Immortal Soulbone:

- Instant Learning

The Immortal Soulbone turns complexity into simplicity. No matter the intricacy or profundity of a Merit Law—be it an Immortal Emperor Merit Law or a Heaven's Will Secret Law—a single glance is enough for the bearer to grasp its essence.

 - Comprehension of the Profound: Instantly understand the mysteries of any technique, cultivation method, or Grand Dao insight.
 - Universal Learning: Whether it is martial arts, alchemy, or the obscure workings of alien worlds, the Immortal Soulbone enables mastery in moments.
- Petrifying Immortal Light

The Immortal Soulbone can project a radiant Immortal Light, a beam of power so overwhelming it can seal even Heavenly Kings when used by a mortal.

- o Sealing Power: Immobilize and incapacitate entities far beyond your strength.
- o Universal Suppression: The light overwhelms the wills of mortals and lesser beings, imposing absolute dominance.

Paragon Artifact (1000CP)

The Paragon Artifact stands as the apex of an epoch, the most powerful weapon ever forged during its time. These legendary tools of war are designed not just to conquer nations but to challenge the very High Heavens themselves. With a casual swipe, they can shatter worlds, and their very presence radiates the culmination of an era's cultivation, philosophy, and power (e.g. a sci-fi focused epoch had a mecha armor, a sea based epoch having a trident).

By claiming this perk, you gain a Paragon Artifact uniquely crafted to embody your personality, skills, and abilities. It is the ultimate expression of your essence, seamlessly enhancing your strengths and adapting to your techniques.

Dao Heart (1200CP)

At the core of cultivation lies not power, wealth, or talent, but the strength of one's Dao Heart. It is the essence of perseverance, the relentless pursuit of truth, and the unyielding will to overcome every obstacle on the path to the Grand Dao. While others may covet powerful treasures or seek enlightenment through profound Merit Laws, it is the Dao Heart that determines whether one can truly ascend to the heavens. A cultivator with a strong Dao Heart can defy the odds, surpassing poor talent or ordinary cultivation techniques to one day stand at the apex of creation. Conversely, countless geniuses with extraordinary talents and treasures have fallen short, their weak Dao Hearts unable to bear the weight of their ambitions. This perk does not grant you an ironclad Dao Heart outright, but instead opens the door to its eventual achievement.

Psuedo-Immortal (1500CP) [Requires: Primordial Will, Ancestor, Dao Heart, Dark Crow Companion]

You have ascended to a level where all cultivation systems converge, transcending the boundaries of mortality to touch the edges of eternity. At this stage, you are no longer bound by the limitations of ordinary existence; you have become a Psuedo-Immortal, a being of nearly eternal life, indestructibility, and incomprehensible power. Yet, even at this level, you stand only on the threshold of the endless Dao, with vistas far greater still ahead. Your mastery of the Dao grants you abilities that defy comprehension:

- Eternal Creation: Forge universes and timelines hidden from even the High Heavens themselves. Shape and sustain new planes of existence and life with but a thought.
- Timelines Devoured: Consume entire timelines in a single act, drawing their essence into yourself for power and sustenance.
- Destruction Beyond Mortal Bounds: Erase timelines, planes of existence, and dimensions instantly, leaving no trace behind.
- Indestructible Form: Your body is nearly invincible, a fortress against the ravages of time and attack.
- Boundless Lifespan: Your longevity approaches the eternal, existing beyond the comprehension of mortals and even many immortals.
- Sovereignty: This power is uniquely yours, immune to external manipulation, theft, or alteration by any force.

Note: Selecting this perk requires taking the Primordial Backlash drawback for 0CP.

Independent Cultivator Perk Tree:

Formation Techniques (Free/200/400) (Discounted for Independent Cultivator)

Formations are one of the most profound tools in a cultivator's arsenal, capable of trapping, sealing, or destroying multiple targets simultaneously. These techniques harness energy and intent, transforming the mundane into the extraordinary. Whether they are formed with Refined Jades, specific matching artifacts, or coordinated movements of individuals, formations can alter the flow of battle and defy even the mightiest foes.

Tiers of Formation Techniques

Each purchase increases the power and effectiveness of your formations, allowing them to target increasingly formidable opponents:

- Free: Basic formations capable of affecting opponents up to the Purified Rebirth stage
- 200 CP: Advanced formations effective against opponents up to the level of Virtuous Paragon
- 400 CP: Peerless formations capable of affecting even Immortal Emperors

Alchemy (400CP) (Discounted for Independent Cultivator)

As an aspiring Alchemist Emperor, you possess knowledge rivaling that of an immortal lineage, spanning millions of years of refinement and mastery. Your skill in alchemy allows you to create miraculous concoctions capable of reshaping the destiny of cultivators. From healing injuries to prolonging life, refining physiques, or enhancing cultivation, your expertise is unparalleled.

Core Alchemy Abilities

You can craft various alchemical creations, each capable of undergoing up to nine transformations, exponentially increasing their potency and extending their effectiveness to cultivators of higher realms:

- Ointments: Used to heal injuries, restoring vitality and stabilizing the Life Wheel.
- Physique Pastes: Enhance and refine the Physique, fortifying the body to endure the rigors of cultivation.
- Longevity Medicines: Prolong lifespans, a treasured creation among old ancestors seeking to defy the passage of time.
- Fate Pills: Boost cultivation levels, aiding the comprehension of profound Dao insights.

Alchemy Subsets (200 CP Each)

Each subset adds a unique dimension to your alchemical mastery:

1. Plant Cultivation

The art of cultivating medicinal plants, or Spirit Medicines, to amplify their potency and efficacy.

- Each plant requires unique care, including specific fertilizers with formulas unique to the alchemist.

- Mastery of plant cultivation ensures a steady supply of potent ingredients for your alchemical creations.
2. Wood Mastery
The ability to borrow the power of plants to manipulate and stimulate their growth to incredible degrees.
- Unlike Plant Cultivation, this mastery treats plants as weapons rather than resources.
 - Use vines, roots, and entire forests as tools of combat, reshaping the battlefield to your will.
3. Insect Mastery
A specialized technique for controlling poisonous creatures.
- Harness venomous insects to guard, attack, or support your efforts.
 - These creatures can act as living tools of alchemy, delivering toxins or enhancing your concoctions.

Emperor's Possession (600CP) (Discounted for Independent Cultivator)

An Emperor's Possession is a unique artifact born from the prolonged use and proximity to an Immortal Emperor. Over time, even ordinary objects or structures absorb traces of the Emperor's consciousness and power. These artifacts are not created intentionally but are a byproduct of the Emperor's immense presence and mastery of the Dao. While their power is finite, their potential is immense, making them rare and coveted treasures. You gain 3-5 of them, each of which has 2-4 uses.

Immortal Soulbone: Filial Descendent

You are recognized by the Emperor's Possession allowing you to use it 7-9 times, or you can use all of it at once for an exponentially more powerful strike.

Path of the Grand Dao (800CP) (Discounted for Independent Cultivator)

Not all cultivators yearn to compete for the Heaven's Will, nor do they seek the mantle of an Immortal Emperor. For those who walk a different path—one of introspection, refinement, and ultimate self-mastery—there is the Path of the Grand Era. This is the road of those who strive to perfect their Dao, pushing its boundaries to the peak and even breaking through its limits, all without the blessings or burdens of the Heaven's Will. Gain an unrivaled level of mastery over your Dao, sitting at the apex of the Virtuous Paragon realm as an Emperor Rival with the might of an Immortal Emperor with one Heaven's Will.

Dark Crow's Karmic Tie Perk Tree:

Merit Laws (Free/100/200CP) (Discounted for Dark Crow's Karmic Tie)

Also known as Cultivation Methods, Merit Laws are the foundational techniques that cultivators use to refine their Fate Palace, Life Wheel, Physique. They also act as techniques for personal combat. These sacred teachings are the roadmap for ascending through the cultivation realms, tailored to align with your unique potential and aspirations.

Types of Merit Laws

- Fate Palace Merit Laws
- Life Wheel Merit Laws.
- Physique Merit Laws
- Foundation Heart Laws

Tiers of Merit Laws

- Free: Heavenly King Merit Law
- 100 CP: Virtuous Paragon Merit Law
- 200 CP: Immortal Emperor Merit Law

Heaven's Will Secret Law (400 CP) (Discounted for Dark Crow's Karmic Tie)

Among the strongest techniques in the Nine Worlds, the Heaven's Will Secret Laws stand unrivaled, surpassed only by the Nine Grand Heavenly Scriptures. These laws are the pinnacle of an Immortal Emperor's achievement, the culmination of their understanding of the Grand Dao and their bond with the Heaven's Will. Each Immortal Emperor creates only one Heaven's Will Secret Law, uniquely shaped by their connection to the Heaven's Will of their era, making every Secret Law one of a kind. You gain one that is suited for you, having found out it was possessed by one of the many Immortal Emperors that have existed. Alternatively, you can select a known canon law.

Immortal Soulbone: Dual Heaven's Will Secret Law

Thanks to your unique advantage you now possess two Heaven's Will Secret Law and can utilize both at once.

Immortal Emperor (600CP) (Discounted for Dark Crow's Karmic Tie)

To ascend to the level of Immortal Emperor is to stand at the pinnacle of cultivation in the Nine Worlds. It is a title earned by those who have shouldered the Heaven's Will, transcending mortality to wield unparalleled power. Immortal Emperors are forces of nature, their very existence tied to the Heaven's Will, granting them nearly unkillable resilience and a legacy that echoes through the ages. As long as the Heaven's Will remains intact, the Emperor cannot truly die. Even if their body and True Fate are destroyed, their existence persists, anchored by the Heaven's Will. Immortal Emperors enjoy an extraordinarily long life, and by sealing themselves, they can potentially live indefinitely. Do note that you must adhere to Imperial Ethics (See Notes) to achieve this level. See Notes for how all of this works for the purposes of a Jumpchain.

Dao Heart: 12 Will Emperor

Thanks to your Dao Heart you possess 12 Heaven's Will, being an experienced Immortal Emperor who is one step below Ancestor. Regular 1 Heaven's Will Emperors are like children to you, able to be defeated with relative ease.

Dark Crow's Student Perk Tree:

Nine Grand Heavenly Treasures (200CP) (First Purchase Free for Dark Crow's Student, Rest Discounted) [One Purchase Only for Independent Cultivator & Dark Crow's Karmic Tie]

The Nine Grand Heavenly Treasures are the pinnacle artifacts of creation, existing since the beginning of time itself. These extraordinary items are unmatched in their power, standing as the ultimate expressions of their epochs. No matter how time changes, the treasures endure, adapting their forms to each new epoch, including the Nine Worlds. Their sheer power and mystery have made them coveted across all of existence. When first acquired, each treasure bought manifests in its Nine Worlds version, showcasing its full glory and abilities as per that epoch's cultivation system. After your initial jump, the treasures reappear adapted to the context of your new Jump, transforming into equivalent items suitable for the local setting. These transformed versions are hidden somewhere, waiting for you to discover them. You keep your old versions too. Any of these not purchased cannot be found elsewhere and simply do not exist anywhere. See Notes for examples.

Nine Grand Heavenly Scriptures (400CP) CP (First Purchase Free for Dark Crow's Student, Rest Discounted) [One Purchase Only for Independent Cultivator & Dark Crow's Karmic Tie]

The Nine Grand Heavenly Scriptures are the foundational elements of the Grand Dao, existing as collections of elemental runes that embody the principles of all creation. These scriptures are meaningless, formless, and nameless in their raw state, awaiting comprehension to give them form and purpose. Each epoch and cultivation system interprets these scriptures differently, reshaping them to suit their own understanding of the Dao. Initially, you gain access to one scripture in its Nine Worlds version, complete with its associated Merit Laws and Secret Arts as fixed in that epoch by supreme beings. After your initial jump, the scriptures reappear adapted to the context of your new Jump, transforming into equivalent items suitable for the local setting. These transformed versions are hidden somewhere, waiting for you to discover them. You keep your old versions too. Any of these not purchased cannot be found elsewhere and simply do not exist anywhere. See Notes for examples.

Primordial Will (600CP) (Discounted for Dark Crow's Student) [Exclusive Dark Crow's Student]

The Primordial Will represents one of the greatest mysteries of the universe, the ultimate key to True Immortality. In the Nine Worlds, it is a power that transcends even the might of the Heaven's Will, offering a path to unmatched strength and unparalleled enlightenment. It is through the Primordial Will that cultivators can reach the peak of existence and pursue the profound truth of their true self, also known as Anima. Unlike a traditional Immortal Emperor, whose power is capped at 12

Heaven's Wills, the Primordial Will allows the user to shoulder up to 72 Heaven's Wills.

Dao Heart: 13th Palace

Your Dao Heart allows you to open the 13th Palace, a unique feat across the ages accomplished by only two others. This is one of the keys to True Immortality and exponentially raised your battle prowess.

Ancestor (800CP) (Discounted for Dark Crow's Student) [Exclusive Dark Crow's Student] [Requires Primordial Will & Dao Heart]

After mastering the Primordial Will, the cultivator begins to harness Anima, an unparalleled power unique to the individual. Anima is present from inception, tied to the essence of one's being, and it is through its mastery that the cultivator transcends mortality and steps onto the path of True Immortality.

At this level, the cultivator fuses their True Self, True Fate, and Grand Dao into a unified existence, achieving an extraordinary state of being that transcends the boundaries of mortal comprehension. Anima becomes the cornerstone for breaking through their ultimate limit, marking the only true way to ascend to Pseudo-Immortal and beyond.

Items:

Any lost or stolen items will return to you after a week in the same condition as when you had it. Any damaged items could potentially be repaired and have the broken condition removed if worked on by a capable engineer.

Refined Jades (Free/100/200/400/600/800 CP)

Refined Jades are the crystallized essence of heaven and earth's spiritual energy, the fundamental resource for cultivation. These treasures form the foundation of a cultivator's path, fueling breakthroughs, enhancing techniques, and supporting the creation of legendary constructs such as Dao Platforms, Dao Gates, Grand Formations, and Heaven Caves.

The quality of Refined Jades determines the purity and potency of the Spirit Energy contained within, directly affecting the speed and ease of cultivation. While lower-quality Refined Jades can be used to achieve great heights, the process becomes significantly slower once a cultivator surpasses the jade's associated cultivation level.

Tiers of Refined Jades

Each purchase grants a supply of Refined Jades suited to the level of cultivation they support:

- Free: Star Plucking Refined Jades
- 100 CP: Ancient Saint Refined Jades
- 200 CP: Heavenly Sovereign Refined Jades
- 400 CP: Heavenly King Refined Jades
- 600 CP: Virtuous Paragon Refined Jades

- 800 CP: Immortal Emperor Refined Jades

Blood Era Stone/Amber (100/200 CP)

The Blood Era Stones are rare treasures used by ancient cultivators to slow the relentless passage of time. While these stones cannot grant true immortality, their energy is potent enough to delay the effects of aging. By resting near these stones for extended periods, cultivators can significantly slow their physical decay, gaining precious time to pursue breakthroughs in cultivation.

For those seeking greater potency, the Blood Era Amber, available for 200 CP, offers an enhanced effect. Its energy is far more concentrated, exponentially increasing the ability to halt the effects of aging. When combined with other stones or amber, the effects multiply, creating an aura of longevity.

Companions:

Dark Crow (1000 CP) [Mandatory for Student Origin]

Li Qiye, the Taboo Existence, the Dark Crow, is an immortal being who has walked the endless epochs of the Emperor's Domination world. With billions of years of life experience, his wisdom is boundless, his power unparalleled, and his influence extends across the entirety of existence. If you choose him as your companion, you are inviting the guidance of an entity who has already completed his story, standing as a peerless force of knowledge and power. They possess all perks from each origin, but mastered and grown by trillions of years of experience and limit breaking growth.

Key Features of the Dark Crow

- Immortal and Indestructible: As the Dark Crow, Li Qiye retains his indestructible crow form, the same body he inhabited for countless years. His existence transcends mortality, and no force short of absolute annihilation can harm him.
- Peak Human Form: Once per Jump or every ten years, he assumes his peak human form for a short duration, unleashing the full extent of his power and influence to assist you.

Omniscient Explorer of New Realms

Before each new Jump, the Dark Crow disappears, traversing the new realm ahead of you. By the time you arrive, he will have already reached its peak, unraveled its deepest secrets, and acquired virtual omniscience of its rules, histories, and powers. In every new Jump, you will find echoes of his story, whispers of a forbidden existence that has shaken that world to its core.

Role as a Teacher

The Dark Crow can teach you, but his methods are anything but gentle. His terse, enigmatic, and dangerous lessons force you to confront challenges head-on. He believes that struggle is the only path to growth and would rather see you fail trying than succeed without effort. His guidance often borders on brutal, but the results are undeniable.

Revival and Protection

- One-Time Revival: Once per Jump, the Dark Crow will intervene to save you from death or prevent a Jump failure condition. After this, you are on your own.
- Occasional Interventions: He will sporadically appear to guide you, protect you, or offer cryptic advice. However, he regularly vanishes to allow you the space to grow and forge your own path.

Immortal Emperor Yan Shiqu (800 CP)

An Immortal Emperor of unmatched might, Yan Shiqu is a master of fire and passion, wielding 12 Heaven's Wills with the authority and grace of a peerless ruler. Yet, beneath her immense power lies the heart of a traveler and explorer, driven by a love for new sights, flavors, and experiences. A devoted and loyal companion, she brings strength, warmth, and boundless curiosity to your journey. A traveler at heart, Yan Shiqu finds joy in exploring new worlds, tasting unfamiliar cuisines, and experiencing the wonders of existence. Her curiosity is infectious, and her enthusiasm brings life to every journey. Yan Shiqu is fiercely devoted to you, her chosen companion. While she harbors a quiet crush on you, her respect for your autonomy ensures she will never act on or mention her feelings unless you reciprocate. Her loyalty remains steadfast regardless of your response. Yan Shiqu possesses all the perks of the Dark Crow's Student origin, including access to the profound teachings and treasures associated with it. Her mastery of these abilities complements her fire-based powers, making her a formidable ally in any realm. Yan Shiqu specializes in fire-based merit laws, wielding flames that can refine, destroy, or even rejuvenate. Her flames embody the ultimate in destructive and restorative power, a reflection of her connection to the True Phoenix lineage. Thanks to her innate True Phoenix innate gift, Yan Shiqu can revive herself through fire. Upon death, she reverts to an egg, from which she hatches back into her prime form after a short period, completely restored.

Emperor Assailant Nu Shui (600 CP)

A prodigy among prodigies, Nu Shui was once hailed as the most likely to ascend as the Immortal Emperor of his generation. Yet, in a world consumed by the pursuit of Heaven's Will, he chose a different path. Refusing to chase the mantle of emperor, he sought freedom and fulfillment as a leader in his own right. Now, he has joined your journey, seeing in you the potential for greatness and choosing to guide you as though you were his younger sibling. Nu Shui's techniques and merit laws revolve around the elemental forces of ice and water, granting him unparalleled control over these elements. His abilities allow him to freeze entire regions, create impenetrable defenses, and manipulate water to devastating effect. Despite not becoming an Immortal Emperor, Nu Shui's mastery and cultivation remain on par with the strongest cultivators of his generation, a testament to his extraordinary talent and dedication. Nu Shui approaches life with an easygoing demeanor, yet his wisdom and leadership shine through when it matters most. His guidance is subtle but effective, pushing you to grow while allowing you the freedom to find your own path. Nu Shui sees you as a younger sibling to protect and nurture. His loyalty is unwavering, and he takes pride in helping you rise to your potential. Nu Shui possesses all the perks of the Dark Crow Karmic Tie origin, granting him access to the profound Merit Laws, Heaven's Will Secret Laws, and Grand Dao insights that define his path. His mastery of these techniques, combined with his elemental focus, makes him a versatile and invaluable ally.

Golden Tiger Legion (400 CP)

The Golden Tiger Legion is a formidable force of 10,000 warriors, bound by unwavering loyalty to your leadership. These cultivators would march into the depths of the Yellow River without hesitation if commanded, their devotion to you absolute. They are an elite fighting force, combining powerful cultivation with mastery over Formation Techniques, making them a relentless army capable of overwhelming any enemy. The warriors of the Golden Tiger Legion range from Initial Stage cultivators to their General, a Virtuous Paragon of immense power. Their cultivation levels are evenly distributed, ensuring a balance of strength across all tiers, with the General leading them in both strategy and might. The Legion employs a variety of Formation Techniques, ranging from full-army formations that devastate battlefields to small-unit formations designed for precision strikes. Their techniques are optimized for destruction, adaptability, and overwhelming their foes regardless of the scenario. Each member of the Golden Tiger Legion possesses perks from the Cultivator origin, scaled to their respective cultivation levels. Their Life Wheels, Physiques, and Fate Palaces are refined to match their rank and role within the Legion. The General, as a Virtuous Paragon, wields perks at a peak level, making them a force to be reckoned with and a cornerstone of the Legion's strength. The Legion is fiercely loyal, following your orders without question and executing your will with unparalleled efficiency. They are not merely soldiers but an extension of your power and influence, embodying your vision and amplifying your strength on the battlefield.

A companion of unparalleled potential, the Divine Beast Descendant carries the bloodline of one of the mythical Divine Beasts, granting it innate strength and extraordinary abilities. While not fully awakened to its ancestral power, this beast will grow alongside you, its potential mirroring your own ascension. With time, effort, and luck, there is a small chance it may fully revert to its Divine Beast bloodline, unlocking the true might of its ancestry. While their Divine Beast ancestry is dormant, it manifests through enhanced strength, resilience, and abilities far beyond ordinary beasts. Your Divine Beast Descendant grows alongside you, its power increasing with your cultivation. The stronger you become, the more its latent potential is unlocked. There is a small but significant chance that your companion's bloodline may fully revert to its Divine Beast origins, granting it unparalleled might and the complete abilities of its ancestor. Your Divine Beast Descendant is fiercely loyal, forming an unbreakable bond with you. This connection ensures that it will stand by your side in battle and serve as a trusted ally and protector.

Choices of Divine Beast Descendants

Upon taking this perk, you may select one of the following Divine Beast lineages for your companion:

- Dracobull

- Descendant of the True Dragon, embodying unmatched physical strength and resilience. Its roar shakes mountains, and its scales rival the toughest armors.
- Qilin
 - Descendant of the Qilin, a creature of grace and mystic power. It wields the ability to purify and control elemental forces, making it both a guardian and a destroyer.
- Golden Peng
 - Descendant of the Kun Peng, a master of the skies and oceans. With incredible speed and agility, it soars across realms and wields the power of both water and wind.

Heavenly Law (100 CP)

The Heavenly Law is a mysterious and formless entity, one of the most powerful beings in existence, standing above even Immortal Emperors in potential. Initially, it lacks both appearance and personality, existing solely as a latent presence within your warehouse. Over time, through effort and dedication, you can nurture this entity into a unique being of immense power and individuality. Its personality, appearance, and sense of self will develop through your interactions and the time you invest in guiding it. Your choices and behavior will shape its nature, forging a unique bond and determining its ultimate identity. With time and effort, the Heavenly Law can ascend to the power equivalent of Pseudo-Immortal, standing as one of the strongest entities in existence. Once developed, it becomes a powerful companion, capable of aiding you in battle, cultivation, and other endeavors, reflecting its role as a manifestation of universal principles. Cultivating a sense of self in the Heavenly Law requires immense time, effort, and patience, spanning potentially ages of interactions.
