

Boone Street Farm Intern

Boone Street Farm is a quarter acre vegetable farm and community garden in the East Baltimore Midway neighborhood. Our mission is to cultivate sustainable agriculture and promote healthy eating in our neighborhood and city. We are a member of the Farm Alliance of Baltimore City and produce for restaurants, Waverly Farmer's market, neighborhood CSA and farm stand sales. We offer monthly workshops, volunteer days, and a garden club for Cecil Elementary School.

This summer we are hiring a farm intern who can commit 10 - 12 hours per week from June 7th - August 30th 2016 however we can be flexible with the dates based on your summer availability. This is an unpaid internship and will include educational opportunities, produce as available, and the opportunity to be an integral part of a small, community-focused organization.

Responsibilities

- Assist with all aspects of production including weeding, planting, harvesting, and processing
- Assist with CSA distribution, restaurant deliveries, Farmer's market preparation and Wednesday farm stand sales
- Assist with community outreach and farm communications
- Able to work two days a week preferably on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday or Saturday
- Some weekend and night work may be necessary

Qualifications

- Some farming experience is a plus but not necessary
- Strong interest in sustainable agriculture and urban farming
- Experience working with diverse populations
- Ability to work as part of a team as well as independently
- Ability to lift 40 lbs and work in all weather conditions

To apply please send resume and cover letter to boone.street.farm@gmail.com. Applications accepted on a rolling basis with an ideal start date of June 7.
