

Hello, Anna!

How are you? I hope you are doing good! Miss you lots!

We have finally moved to Canada. So exciting! Roman is already going to school and he loves it! He says hello to you!

Things are settling down a bit and we are now looking for a place to rent. John and I really liked one apartment we visited yesterday. The landlord said that the current tenants will be moving out shortly, and it will be available in March. It is a one-bedroom suit with a large living room, a bedroom, two bathrooms and a cozy kitchen with all the appliances. The rent is not very bad - $600 per month plus utilities. Parking spot is included in the rent as well. The location is very convenient - there is a bus stop, some shops and a school nearby. One thing that I don't really like is that we have to pay the damage deposit and it's a lot of money - almost half the rent!

Ok, I got to go! Wish we could chat more often! Say hello to James from me.
Talk to you soon,

Love, Ada
