

What role has TH LA had in the successful adoption of technology at Swanlea?

A key milestone in our work as a school, indeed within the Local Authority, has been the partnership that we've had with EdTech. Selda Ziya, in particular, has worked fantastically with us as a school. Signposting us to the resourcing and the infrastructure and the software, indeed the hardware that allows us ideally to become over time a beacon borough across London in terms of ICT provision.
