

Mr. Leo Wang,

My name is Quaid, I am a professional Marketing Strategist.

As I was searching for useful online tutorials that I could use as a recommendation to one of my clients on how to be fit WITHOUT weights, I stumbled upon your channel. I was intrigued.

Your style of editing, speech techniques, and thumbnail designs are stunning.

You have a substantial amount of views on your channel, but it seems almost as if your subscribers just aren't leveling out with such.

As I was examining how you've found a way to get so many viewers, I noticed a few minor flaws.

Flaws that if they were to be fixed, your channel will grow into a million-dollar business machine.

And as there are many more issues I would like to address,

Those things can be covered under further communication.

Warmly,
Quaid.
