

Italics indicate that I still draw them on occasion. Therefore they're still alive in some way. I don't keep good track of this.

Underlines indicate that they're essentially my main OCs.

Bold letters indicate what universe an OC belongs to- blue for Lukisan's Lifeblood, red for Whispers on the Wind. Unbolded OCs were never officially linked to a universe.

If "discolored" is in front of the species (if said species is not owned by me), that just means they have a different color palette than canon.

OCs with Toyhouse profiles will have them linked.

Made during/before 2013 or have unclear creation dates. (18)

In total, that makes...

- At least 114 (HOW???) OCs
- 44 of which are a part of Lukisan (11 Pokémon, 23 dragons, 5 helpers, 5 Meridiana spirits)
- 13 of which are a part of Whispers
- 23? of which are still in use somehow

- 5 of which are classified as my main OCs (Tropkal, Sparx, Cerebus, LAD Bolt, Azzy)

There was a whole section here that I'm too lazy to update. It's gone now.

Credit where credit is due...

- Lazarus was designed by someone on Miiverse. His species belongs to them.
- Ignis (cherry blossom) is inspired by the skill of the same name from Fire Emblem.
- Terrence was a part of a FE fan game of an ex-friend that never got made.
- The rest of the unformatted characters in 2017 pre Miiverse originated from my Etrian Odyssey V file.
- Ignis Miyazaki is connected to a friend's (Linus) OC, Seiko.
- Couverture Choco was designed in tandem with an old friend.
- Shoutout to Cookie Run for the basis of Lapis Tart (the Azure Flame Staff) and Ruby Currant (Blueberry Pie's tome spirit), as well as Azzy (Azure Flame Wizard) and Noell (Snow Sugar). It was good for nothing except for this.
- Passer, Comet, Bumble and Campbell are all Arknights OCs.
- Fortuna was designed by a friend, Blitzler.
- Top Hat and Hallren were the results of design challenges on Twitter.
- Callas, Murmur, Kumo, Jubilee and Augustine's designs were derived from Picrews. Paulownia too, sorta, but I dreamed them up first.
- Maxixe, Strela and Rubel are part of a collaborative effort with friends to have Pokemon OCs made of Tera Shards. Rian is loosely related to them.
- Paz and Rez are Pop'n OCs, older siblings of Nia and Toa.
- Topaz and Spinel are also Pop'n OCs, but I don't have their lore fully figured out besides a few small ideas.
- Black Mamba was designed by Freya.
- Veleno is a standalone Pop'n OC.
- Sylvas, Nolani and Peregrin are Fragaria Memories OCs.
