Army Selection

- 1000-point armies. The army must follow all restrictions for army selection from its own Codex. Only the main army list may be used, so no appendix lists are permitted.
- 2 detachment maximum
- Only armies from current Codices or officially approved White Dwarf articles may be taken
- Players must use the same army and list for the entire event.

WYSIWYG Models

All models must accurately represent the appropriate army selection in a manner that your opponent can clearly tell what the unit is and how it is equipped without being told. Models must be correctly modeled.

- Forge World models are allowed.
- Lords of War are not allowed unless specified by the event.
- No legends

Painting and Basing

- All models must be based on their current base size.
- Painting is not required.

Player Responsibilities

- A current Warhammer 40,000 rulebook
- Current Codex for your army.
- The most currently published rules for all units represented in their army.
- All materials needed to play a game/report the results – including:
    - Dice
    - Measuring device

Players are also responsible for conducting themselves in an appropriate, sportsmanlike manner at all times.

Prizes

Prizes will be a raffle! Players can get tickets for the following:

• Fully painted army

• Playing a game

• Winning a game

• Being prepared to play 15 minutes before the start, without assistance.
