Terms & Conditions - Pain Freedom

Terms of Service
Date Effective: May 2024

Our promise to you:
We agree to provide you with full lifetime access to our digital course program the ‘Pain Freedom Experiment”.

The program includes 20 course modules. You will have access to the program with all videos and files in the Pain Freedom App as these are rolled out with new material every month.

Lifetime access = the lifetime of the digital course - which we can guarantee to be at least 3 years, or until June 1. 2027. Any upgrades or new developments in the course will be gifted to you free of charge.

Medical disclaimer:

The Pain Freedom course content, including all emails, videos, app content, social media posts, and any other content provided via Pain Freedom and Anna Fryxelius, hereinafter referred to as “the course content”, offers empowerment information and is designed for inspiration and educational purposes only. You should not rely on this information or any information or advice provided as a substitute for medical treatment. The information shared in the course content does not replace professional medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

If you have any concerns or questions about your health, you should always consult with a physician or other healthcare professional.

Do not disregard, avoid or delay obtaining medical or health-related advice from your healthcare professional because of advice given to you in the course content. The implementation of any information provided to you in the course content is solely at your own risk.

No information or advice provided in the course content or available through any of the services from Pain Freedom or Anna Fryxelius are intended to be, and must not be taken to be, the practice of professional medical or counselling care.

For purposes of this disclaimer, the practice of medicine and counselling include, without limitation, psychiatry, psychology, psychotherapy, and the provision of any health care treatment, instructions, diagnosis, prognosis or advice.

To fully experience and gain the most benefit from our programs, you agree:

We are committed to providing all participants with a positive experience. Thus, Anna Fryxelius as owner of the course may limit, suspend, or terminate your participation in their programs, including live, recorded, social media-based, or digital content, without refund or forgiveness of remaining payments if:

- you become disruptive, abusive or difficult to work with;
- you fail to follow the program guidelines; or,
- you impair the participation of our instructors or participants in our program(s).

Privacy & Confidentiality:
We respect your privacy and require that you respect the privacy of fellow Program participants. Do not share any personal information from inside the course community.
