

STARTING POINTS

Where thinking begins.

Name:

WEEK 19: Frankenstein- Part 2

Continue your Frankenstein Quote Journal from WEEK 18

Chapter Questions (9-16)

Chapter 9

What was Victor “seized by”?

How does Victor often deal with his grief?

Chapter 10

Victor suddenly encounters the creature he made. What does the creature accuse Victor of treating like “sport”?

According to the creature, what made him a “fiend”?

What seems to make the creature so sad?

Chapter 11

Note: The creature begins narrating in this chapter.

How did the creature satisfy his basic needs in his earliest days? How did he develop?

How does the creature really seem to learn about human nature? What kinds of things does he observe?

Chapter 12

How does the creature show a sense of morality? Where does he seem to have gotten the idea for this action?

What terrified the creature and filled him with “the bitterest sensations of despondence and mortification”?

Chapter 13

What makes Felix happy in a way that the creature had not yet witnessed?

What does the creature recognize as missing from his infant days?

Chapter 14

What is the cottagers’ background and reason for their current living situation?

Chapter 15

What questions puzzle the creature?

How does the monster compare and contrast himself with Adam, as portrayed in Paradise Lost?

Chapter 16

What events during the creature's travels to find Victor confirm his hatred of humans?

Part 2- Frankenstein Quote Journal

QUOTE	THEME	CONTEXT	ANALYSIS

Frankenstein Quote Journal

QUOTE	THEME	CONTEXT	ANALYSIS