Bats have big ears, furry bodies and wings like leather. They are nocturnal mammal. This means they sleep in caves and attics during the day and fly out to feed at night time.

Bats are the only mammals that can fly. They are very fast and acrobatic. When they chase after insects, they twist and turn in mid-air. Bats use sound to catch insects in the darkness. They send out high-pitched squeals that humans cannot hear. The echoes that bounce back tell the bats exactly where they will find their prey.

Flying foxes, or fruit bats, are large bats that live in tropical Africa and Asia. They mainly eat fruit. Flying foxes are important because they help to spread the pollen and seeds of many plants.

- What is the purpose of the text? It is
 - to describe nocturnal animals.
 - to describe the writer's bats.
 - to describe bats in general
 - to entertain the readers with the story.
- "When they chase after insects, they twist and turn in mid-air. (Paragraph 2).
 The word 'they' refers to
 - bats
 - insects
 - mammals
 - humans
- Question : "They are nocturnal mammal." (Paragraph 1, sentence 2).
 The word 'nocturnal' means
 - animals active at night
 - animals active during the day
 - animals sleep at night
 - animals active during the day and at night

The following text is for test item No. 9 to 11!

Long ago, Bawang Merah and Bawang Putih were half-sisters who were polar opposites of each other. Bawang Merah was a lazy, greedy girl spoiled by their mother while Bawang Putih was obedient, diligent and did all the chores without complaint. They lived in a small village.

One laundry day in the river, Bawang Putih lost a scarf, which was picked up by an old woman. The old woman said she would return the scarf if Bawang Putih cooked and cleaned for her. Bawang Putih did as she's told, got the scarf back and the old woman as a gift told her to bring home one of her two pumpkins, a small or a large one.

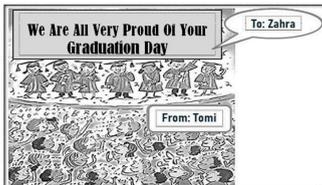

Bawang Putih choosed the smaller pumpkin. When she broke open the pumpkin at home, she discovered the fruit was filled with jewelry.

Bawang Merah and their mother got jealous and wanted their own pumpkin filled with jewelery, so they went to the river and deliberately lost their scarves. Then they visited the old woman's house and asked for a pumpkin. They brought home the big one (of course), but instead of jewelry, their large pumpkin was filled with snakes.

Every weekend I go to traditional market with my mom. There are many things I can see in the traditional market. The seller, butcher, fishmonger, fruit and veggie stalls, groceries, fashion shops and street vendors. There are lots of vehicles in the parking lot, such as cars, motorcycles, bicycles, and pedicabs. My mom usually buys vegetables such as; carrot, tomato, onion, garlic, spinach. Fruits such as mango, apple, banana, watermelon, and melon. She also buys daily needs at one of the grocery in traditional market such as; 20kg rice, 1kg of eggs, milk, tea, coffee, sugar and butter. I like shopping in traditional market. It is complete and the price is cheaper than the price in the supermarket. I can bargain the price but there is one thing I dislike. There are few trashcans in the traditional market. It's a little bit dirty, stinky and wet during the rainy season.

47. When does the writer usually go to traditional market?
48. What does the writer's mother buy in the traditional market? (mention 3)

There is a new amusement park in my town. It is called Transmart Mini Studio. It is located on the fourth floor of a shopping Centre. So people can go shopping as well as have some entertainment.

The park is big with some rides such as a roller coaster, a carousel, canoeing, etc. There are some fake dinosaurs, such as tyrannosaurus, brontosaurus, pterosaurs, and stegosaurus inside the park. Those fake dinosaurs can move and make sound to. The parks also provide the visitors with beautiful ornaments and spots to take photos. Visitors can enjoy the beauty of a miniature Eiffel Tower, a London bus, and antique fountain.

People who enter the park are not allowed to bring food and drink. An officer checks their bags to make sure that they don't bring in food. However, inside the park, visitors can find many stalls selling yummy, hygienic, and cheap food.
