Toward Right Relationship with Native Peoples

These resources are provided by presenters at the April 16, 2025 Webinar, "Building Relationships with Native Peoples: Examples and Tips from Colorado Communities," hosted by Toward Right Relationship with Native Peoples, a program of Friends Peace Teams.

Video recording of this webinar.

Boulder:* Right Relationship Boulder (RRB), Jerilyn DeCoteau and Paula Palmer

Learn about our programs and working groups at RightRelationshipBoulder.org

6-minute video of RRB's 2018 Indigenous Peoples Day event

We recommend "Two Rivers," a one-hour documentary film that can be viewed online here. This film tells the story of dialogue and reconciliation between residents of a rural Washington community and the Native people of that area.

Learn about Jerilyn and Paula's national work here: Toward Right Relationship with Native Peoples

Broomfield:* Broomfield Sister Cities Association, Marrton Dormish

The April 15, 2025, issue of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribal Tribune has a story about our Sister Cities partnership on the front page, 67fe8ac35b9b6f3b4d0c112a_April 15, 2025.pdf

This video partially highlights our recent Sister Cities signing ceremony (produced by Cheyenne and Arapaho TV), https://youtu.be/Q8hbr5INVL4?si=Mq4eqgyN__dSZrsaI

Marrton Dormish's blog, https://everydayepics.com

Longmont:* Longmont Sister Cities Association, Courtney Michelle and Sheree Seyfi

Watch Little by Little, a 40-minute documentary about the origin and development of the Longmont-Northern Arapaho Sister Cities relationship

Follow us on https://www.facebook.com/LMTSisterCities/