

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

INDIAN NEWSPAPER DAY

The Department of English observed the Indian Newspaper Day on 29, January 2024 to create awareness of Indian Newspapers and their significance in the modern context among students. It is an occasion to reflect on the integral role newspapers have played in India's socio-political landscape, emphasizing their commitment to democratic principles, freedom of expression, and the dissemination of accurate information.

Educational Benefits of Reading Newspapers

As we celebrate Indian Newspaper Day, it's crucial to recognize the educational benefits newspapers offer, especially for the younger generation:

- Vocabulary Enhancement: Newspapers introduce new words, expanding vocabulary and improving communication skills.
- Reading and Comprehension Skills: Daily exposure to newspapers enhances reading and comprehension skills in children.
- Analytical Thought: Newspapers foster analytical thinking by presenting diverse perspectives on current events.
- Awareness of the World: Amid personalized social media feeds, newspapers provide a broader understanding of global events and issues.
- Civic Engagement: Newspapers serve as a gateway to understanding local and global social problems, promoting civic engagement.

Students observing Old Newspaper Editions in Library

Students inculcating Newspaper reading habit in Library