

The goal of this doc is to help our fellow librarians and information professionals find and track legislation and orders issued in response to COVID-19. Please feel free to add edits and make comments. Edits will appear in “Suggesting” mode until accepted by admins of the doc.

This doc was started by Lynn McClelland (mcclelland@law.ucla.edu) at UCLA School of Law and is an extension of the libguide created by her titled Legal Responses to Coronavirus \(COVID-19\). You can email her or Rebecca Fordon (the maintainer of this doc, available at @thefordon or fordon@law.ucla.edu) with any questions.

It should go without saying, but we are not your lawyers, and nothing in this guide constitutes legal advice! If you have questions about how any of these materials apply to you, contact a lawyer.

Suggested format (suggested only, please feel free to include more or less information):

State name

Librarians who can help: Name, affiliation (email address, twitter, etc)

State Legislative & Administrative Responses:

- Bill Number, Bill Title, date passed - link to legislation.

State executive orders:

- Date passed, title (if available) - link to legislation

County/municipal ordinances and orders:

- Same as above. Break out by jurisdiction if needed such as:
- Los Angeles County:
 - Title of ordinance/order, date passed - link to document
- Ventura:
 - Title of ordinance/order, date passed - link to document

Other helpful links. If you have experience with any of these ... please leave any comments or suggestions:
