

ALL SCREENSHOTS WILL BE IN A DIFFERENT DOC (This is better to look at on computer)

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1XKkaByjwZ7AfrLJ90-N9vS1b7G-rKZsZzbmYPNPbZPw/edit?usp=sharing> (THIS HAS WORDS THAT CAN TRIGGER PEOPLE, I WILL CENSOR THEM IF I CAN BUT BE AWARE OF THAT AND MORE)(this doc is my experience with yer.mate.mark)

hello, you may not know me as I am not as popular as mark but you can call me ralph, I am a 14 year old who has experience with the user of this document. I am only making this to spread around my side of the story because I have gotten death wishes from his fans and ill say this I HAVE talked to him and tried to sort things out but he wouldn't care because he's on "vacation" and he doesn't know what is going on when he clearly knows because there is screenshots being shared around that are possibly him and l's dms and from his server I used to co owner in.

Please don't harass him or anyone in this document as he is just a minor like me. I never wanted to make this about him because I really tried to talk it out with him and really wanted to sort things out as I never wanted trouble and I apologize to him as often as I can. I am also in the wrong during this and I am not making myself a victim at all, I will apologize in this document and do a lot more.

here are parts im going to explain/debunk

- Hate Group
- Taking Advantage
- Treating him wrong
- threatened
- co owning his server
- death wishes
- end

1 HATE GROUPS

the hate groups are a thing that were normal to the server and to himself but there is one specific that is being spread around called "donefor hate group"

On September 8, I joined a group chat that involved 3 other people who I will not name but are known in donefor and one has been banned and announced to be blocked by many. This group chat was originally going to be a group talking about the issues abt the server and not a hate group which is what I've been told about, the group has existed since august but has been deleted due to the drama that happened and had to be explained. I sadly don't have screenshots of the group chat but the owner of it can explain everything.

The group chat was later snitched on by someone (we know who but they're lying saying they don't know) and we got in trouble for it, I explained my story to mark and me and him talked about it for awhile and forgot about it later on, he banned the owner of the chat and asked everyone (including me) to not talk to him anymore.

when he made that announcement, he started leaking dms with him and O without O's knowledge which made him later cry to me in vc saying "why would he do that to me?". I felt really bad for him and genuinely wished the best for him, O had agreed with the stress part and is sorry for that but thinks it's stupid of how he's making people not talk to him at all because of the group chat.

These are only specific messages I am showing but I will say that I have talked bad about O in these as well and I am not blaming mark for talking bad about opie either. I will apologize directly to O once I finish this document and apologize to more other people.

MAKING THIS CLEAR TOO THAT O IS ALSO A MINOR!! (13) SO PLEASE DON'T HARASS HIM AT ALL!!

2 TREATING HIM BADLY/WRONG

to make this clearer, stuff in these screenshots are true and completely my fault. I have never told him about my partner and only went on with it because I thought it was roleplay

The start of his server which was around May was when we started to talk a lot more since we never talked on tik tok much and he wanted to make his own server for his lore, that was mainly the purpose of it but it has escalated more. I was co owner during these months and I had solved many issues of the server by listening to people's requests and helping out as much as I can but I mostly helped during summer. In June, there has been drama between the owner of regretinfect and someone else who I will not name but will be called R. I will not be talking abt this since this is another topic.

I have cared about Mark so many times and defended him for one of his call outs by helping out and making him explain his story about R which made everything calm down for awhile but then began to start again because of a new document. I have been dry to him a lot and that is my fault as I can be busy or not really knowing what to say but I have comforted him whenever he needed it and have been doing that for awhile

I have treated him badly in most parts because I was in a bad mood or genuinely was really upset but I won't admit that I actually have been treating him well and comforted him when he needed it. I have more screenshots of me comforting him which I will show right now
I AM NOT IN THE DONE FOR SERVER ANYMORE BECAUSE I WAS BANNED!! THERE MIGHT BE MESSAGES OF ME BEING RUDE TO HIM THERE (please share them to me if you can in my dms on discord so I can apologize to him)

I don't have more to show but I hope these can show I have apologized for being rude to him and treated him well. I will now go on to his alter glevil, me and glevil didnt have a good start together which made me not have a good intention with hxm and acted rude back to hxm. September 7th? (I have forgotten the day I apologize) is when I wasn't feeling well and was upset about what happened on my birthday, glevil was being nice to everyone and tried to be nice to me but I didn't want it because I was just not feeling well and made mark have an episode which wasn't my intention at all and he later apologized in my dms for it when i was still in a bad mood but I do want to apologize to him about the episode i gave him and apologized to hxm about my rudeness.

this is also my fault on my behalf as I have led him to like me without knowing i did so, I have also apologized to him about this in dms I believe 2 times. Anyways, I will discuss this now.

When we first met was when he wasn't popular and only had 100 followers or so, we didn't talk much and we only roleplayed in our tiktok dms or just had stupid conversations. We didn't have much interaction with love or anything unless it was roleplay which I had gotten used to and didn't think much of it. around late may is when I gave out my discord user to close moots i had and he friended me on there, we also barely talked there until the server he made. That's when we gotten closer and talked way more than before in dms and his server but mostly in regretinfect which later got canceled because of the owner eric did some bad stuff, to say this yes I was top mod in that server until the drama started which then I stopped supporting eric and stopped interacting with the server and eric until months later where mark invited eric to his server.

back to the topic but I had interacted with Mark acting flirty and lovely to him not knowing he liked me and I only did it because I thought it was all roleplay and a mutual thing. in the month of late august through early September is when he confessed to me which then I was in the group chat and we had to talk about my partner (who I will not name) and discuss of how we are gonna fix this because he was very in love with me and couldn't get over me for months which then later on when he knew about my partner he typed me something and asked if I wanted to be with him or not

I was scared during this time because I didn't want to hurt his feelings at all nor wanted to try to so which is why I said yes and we only kinda dated for a day until he asked if (my partner) was okay with 3 which then I asked her and she explained that she didn't want mark to be apart of our relationship because of stuff she has heard about him and felt about him, when I later told mark about this he understood and then we talked again about how to fix the feelings thing later on I asked if he was doing okay since I saw his status and wanted to comfort him which then led him to share me a paragraph about his feelings and how i have been playing with them which made me apologize to him and left him alone for awhile until he dmed me few days later and we started talking again then stopped after. I apologized to him about my doings and really want to make it up to him as I clearly didn't mean to mess with his feelings and that is my fault, I am sorry for doing all of it and I will not do it again to anyone else if it happens again. I will show the apologies at the end of this as it is very long to read and discord can't fit all of it in screenshots unless its on ipad or computer (I don't have a computer and I am typing all of this in notes on my phone) he has moved on from me now which is good for him and I hope he's happier.

4 - THREATEN

I am not sure where this has come from but I will make it clear that I have NOT threatened mark at all in any shape or form but if I have, please dm me the screenshots. I really don't know where this came from and I don't have any knowledge of it, Mark possibly doesn't either. This could be a false allegation.

5 - CO OWNING HIS SERVER

I co owned his server since it was made and I helped a lot in it too such as roles, channels, bots, etc. I was the main source of people coming up for issues and problems which made me stressed out a lot and I asked in vc before why they couldn't ask mark to help out with their concerns and I didn't get an answer. (I don't care about this anymore since now when I used to be on that server, I couldn't do anything). People have asked for a rule channel and we made it in july, it was basic rules to follow and wasn't an issue for some, mark had made some joke rules which were funny and no one and I even cared about. However he started to take things seriously now for unexpected reasons and I was being blamed for not taking care of the server right and always making stuff about me

I have only onced messed around in a serious channel which was rules, I did what he told me to do which was not to make any channels, make emojis, and roles. I did however make some channels which I promised to delete but I still got in trouble for it and so on. I haven't broken any rules and actually listened to them as I literally made half of them, I also took care of his server whenever he wasn't there and still did when he was (still is) on break/vacation but then got banned because of reasons I can't discuss but it's about me and him. I knew what to do since he doesn't know how to use discord. I made the ticket system, a few channels like confessions and roleplay, helped out with unlocking channels and locking the channel's, etc. I do not have proof of this because I am not on the server anymore but this is all true and he knows it.

He would always talk to me about his server as well whenever he was uncomfortable about it or didn't know what to do about it which then leads me to talk to him or help out with the server more. He also talks to me about people in the server, even wallter and others do as well I mostly had to control many stuff that happened and helped out most of the time, I even helped out when the documents of him came out by talking to the people who made it and that helped out a lot until ANOTHER doc came out that had him and other people (including me) in but mostly about him which later on fixed himself i'll say that his server really had stressed me out a lot and I know I could've taken breaks from it but I couldn't due to my issues I have with addiction to my phone and worried about what might happen when I leave. I was treated way differently than him and had to apologize to the server. Though I may have done stuff In the server I shouldn't have done, I didn't do it again as time went by. I am sorry for any damage I did to the server and my causes I made him stressed about.

6 - DEATH WISHES

as I am typing this it is September 22, today is when I got death wishes from two of his fans and It was really unexpected to me. I was freaking out and crying so much about it because I was worried about my safety and my family since I didn't want to be doxxed or anything. when I talked to mark about it saying I was upset or anything, he couldn't do anything because he didnt know what was going on and was on his vacation as said many times in this, when I told him he made it about himself and didnt bother to at least ask someone about it and the person whos telling people and showing people screenshots

As of right now I am still currently scared for me and my family's safety after what I received and will be blocking anyone who will just send me a death wish or anything else in my dms without knowing my side of the story.

7- ENDING (for now)

I didnt want to make a document at all and never wanted too in the first place, all I wanted was to talk to him about all of this and try to fix the issue but it apparently got more out of hand by him banning me from a server I was in (for voice acting), someone sending screenshots of possibly me and hims dms and conversations to people and leaking my user to get me harassed, and so much more.

This is all for now, I will add more if I get more. Thank you for reading.

Update 1- He lied to me and letting HIS server members talk bad about me when he said he has nothing to do with this

Update 2- He has guilt tripped me by crying in voice messages once i posted the document, he doesn't want my side out of the public because he doesn't want to get exposed for what he has done to me.
