KNEU MO:V3 Ahead

STIPEND PROGRAM —CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Within the program “KNEU MO:V3 Ahead”, the University of Marburg (UMR) and the Kyiv National Economic University named after Vadym Hetman (KNEU) jointly offer a digital course program for students at KNEU in the upcoming term.

The aims of the program “KNEU MO:V3 Ahead” are to enhance students’ digital learning experience, to make learning even more fun and engaging, and to offer course content and learning activities of high quality using the modern learning platform ILIAS at the University of Marburg.

Within this program, there is an online Stipend available to KNEU undergraduate, graduate students, and PhD students who participate in the online courses offered in this program.

☑ Students who participate in the program “KNEU MO:V3 Ahead” can apply for Online Stipends for three months (01.04.2025–30.06.2025), with a monthly scholarship payment of 200€. This stipend aims at enabling KNEU students to continue their studies remotely, even in the currently difficult circumstances.

The number of available stipends is limited. Selection will be based on your active participation in courses offered by the University of Marburg (UMR), your scientific and KNEU-related activities, as well as any particularly challenging conditions you may be facing.

Please submit the enclosed application form before April 1st, 2025 via e-mail to Dan Ostrovsky (Ostrovsd@students.uni-marburg.de).

If you have any questions, please get in touch with Iryna Ivanets (iryna.ivanets@wiwi.uni-marburg.de)

KNEU MO:V3 Ahead is funded by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) within the “Ukraine Digital” funding program.
