Account Security

Is this a scam?

- This may be a whatsapp channel, however; we treat it as a business/source of income. We make money by completing customer orders to their satisfaction. This is much more profitable than attempting to illegally scam you or defraud you, as we make the most money off of satisfied returning customers. All of our reviews are real customers who have not been paid to leave your review. All of our proofs are legit customer orders that have been completed

During Boosting:

- Clients are responsible for ensuring their login details are accurate and accessible.
- Booster Lounge will treat your account with the highest level of care and confidentiality.
- We will not be held responsible for any bans, suspensions, or security flags triggered by constant logging in when we are boosting . Clients are advised not to log in or interfere with the account during the boosting period to avoid conflicts.

Boosting Services

- Boosting timelines are estimated and may vary depending on queue length, difficulty, or server conditions. Usually Our Boosts can be completed within a week
- Clients will receive progress updates and screenshots during the boost.
- Any additional requests (e.g. special brawlers, event timing) must be agreed on before the boost begins.
- Abusive behavior or unrealistic demands may result in immediate cancellation without refund.

Middleman Services

- Our middleman service is designed to ensure safe trading and buying of accounts/items between two parties.
- A service fee of $10–$15 applies depending on the transaction value.
- Booster Lounge acts only as a neutral third party and is not responsible for scams or misrepresentation by either party if they bypass our procedures.
- Once both parties confirm the trade, our decision to release the account/item is final.

Giveaways & Promotions

- Giveaways are conducted fairly, and winners are chosen based on the stated method (e.g. random draw, milestone events).
- Winners must respond within 24 hours to claim their prize.
- Prizes are non-transferable and cannot be exchanged for cash (unless stated otherwise) .
- Booster Lounge reserves the right to modify or cancel giveaways at any time.

Invites

- Invites mean the person invited MUST join the channel/ server as well
- Invites cannot be stacked or re-used
