

April 2, 2025

Meeting called to order 6:32pm

Minutes from previous meeting approved

Treasurer's report: same as last month

Community representatives:

Susan – St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church, seeking funds for bell tower to gain matching funds to update corrosion on metal components and masonry deterioration. (Not seeking anything specific from the neighborhood, just wanted to raise awareness and keep the neighborhood updated on what was coming).

Tom Sitler- house on 12th street cleaned up, owner due to pay tickets, court date not yet set

1130 N Rural and 1134 N Rural, seeking to eliminate junk from back yards

Can report high weeds and grass when over 12 inches

Springdale business:

New newsletter name- Temple Oak Times- a forest of news one leaf at a time. Springdale sprouts- new kids, new businesses, anything people want to share.

KIB park cleaning- will bring teens to help pull weeds and teach about native plants but we will set aside another time for our own cleanup.

Windsor park meeting with Rachel this week, brainstorm things we can do with their neighborhood association. See if they are interested/willing to add plants to park at corner of Brookside and Jefferson. Maybe organize Pogue's Run cleanup.

SASS- April 12-taps and trivia at Centerpoint put on by Teacher's Treasures for anyone who wants to join. Proceeds go to Teacher's Treasures.

Variations- Tacoma Ave variations approved 1222 Temple Ave

John Cross- attorney for property owner. Petition to break lot into two parcels, lots would be 38.5 and 36.5 feet (variance from 40 ft standard) and zero foot setback (against current house with new lot) but 5 feet setback everywhere else will stay. Letter of support from Jesse Brown. Can add a commitment to change 0 foot setback if future building permits. Hearing is April 10.

Upcoming save the dates:

April 12: Spring cleanup- meeting at Temple Oak, will only have packer truck.

April 26: Spring Fling- seeking volunteers for Springdale booth and SASS booth

April 23-27: Indy Film Fest, after party after Spring Fling

April 29: Arsenal 5K kick off at Tick Tock

Meeting adjourned at 7:12pm
