

Dr Damon Whitten

Damon is a specialist provider of professional development to the tertiary sector, focusing on adult literacy and numeracy. He focuses on generating and connecting research to real-world contexts and using the results to develop effective teaching and learning approaches. Damon is at the forefront of adult education and works toward empowering and reengaging adult learners with their dreams, passions and potentials through numeracy and literacy education.

