

as much as I pray for all of your downfalls (except my bbg's and miknyans) you guys have made me very happy in the past year and I appreciate you guys lots even when you guys have esex in the server and even when it's a 6some or a 3some or however many some you guys are all equally freaky and I hate all of you equally except the bbg's and miknyan

The rest of you can go to hell one day but not right now. we still have too much time ahead of us to be worrying about where we are going when we die. Let's worry about that when we walk up to the podium and the player decides if we go to heaven or hell. probably hell because you're all gay faggots who can't put their parts away in the esex channel and all you do is esex. your guys are like rabbits I have a theory that Ritsnyan called og kananyan kitten so many times that og kananyan literally turned into a kitten irl and lost all access to everything because they turned into a kitten

hate all of you.
