

Hey Francis,

I've been following your content for the last 3 months, and hats off your No-BS training and diet principles are incredible.

The reason I'm reaching out is to tell you about the Guru Success Vault Secret.

(Alex Hormozi is a big advocate of this strategy).

It can help you get more qualified leads that will come to your website with credit cards in their hands ready to purchase your coaching program.

Why? All because you've created a lead gen system that works today in the current market.

Influencers like Ross Dickerson are starting to utilize this strategy and generate a pipeline of leads flowing on their website and making a purchase.

If you want to know how we implemented this strategy with my client and how you can get started, just shoot me a DM and I'll share it step-by-step.

Talk soon.
