DIRECTIONS:

Please provide general directions to the site that includes the nearest landmark:

The Bedford EnVision Center (formerly named the Bedford Hope Center) is located on Bedford Avenue in the Hill District. It is a community center within the Bedford Dwellings community of the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh. It is at the intersection of Bedford and Somers St and a block east of Macedonia Baptist Church. Use the main entrance on Bedford Ave and sign in.

Please describe the parking options at your tax site:

Free street parking is available on Bedford Ave.

Please indicate the location of the nearest bus stop and distance from bus stop to site. Kindly include landmarks:

The 83 bus stops on Bedford Ave at Somers Dr.

Dress code:

Dress code is casual, but neat. Do not wear items (such as shirts or buttons) that endorse any political candidates – we are a non-partisan organization. Do not wear anything with profanity.

Bad weather/emergency plan (describe how you will notify volunteers):

During periods of severely inclement weather, notification about delays in opening or closure of the tax sites will be sent out by email and phone calls to all scheduled volunteers. Even if the site does not close, if you feel unsafe or unable to travel to the site due to inclement weather, notify your site coordinator as soon as possible.

Important Information about your organization (mission, other work that you do, etc):

Just Harvest works to promote a just system of food access by addressing the root causes of hunger – systemic poverty and inequity – through policy advocacy, grassroots organizing, community-based solutions, and connecting people to benefits. Learn more at www.JustHarvest.org.

Any other important information about your site:

This tax site is hosted by the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh at their Bedford EnVision Center. The EnVision Center serves residents with a variety of services throughout the year. 2025 is the thirteenth year of operation for this small, but productive tax site in the Hill District. Our goal is to serve over 300 families with your help!
