

Prior credit evaluation for transfer, second degree seeking students or non-degree seeking students policy

Nutrition and Foods, Dietetic 840B

Students must apply and be accepted to Appalachian State University

The Office of Transfer Services will evaluate prior course credits.

Students will be required to meet Dietetics Program of Study (POS) requirements

DPD Program faculty will evaluate any Nutrition DPD required coursework for potential credit.

- Course catalog description and syllabus may be required.

In order to receive a Verification Statement at the DPD level from Appalachian State University, interested parties must follow university policies regarding transferring in prior credit Coursework for DPD requirements outside of the Nutrition and Foods department must be less than 10 years old. (Examples: Intro to Psychology, Intro to Statistics, Chemistry I and II, Survey of Accounting) Coursework for DPD Nutrition equivalent courses must be less than 5 years old and will require a syllabus to be provided for evaluation.

Applicants must receive credit for all required DPD courses (current DPD course lists can be found on the program website) Bachelor of Science in Nutrition and Foods - Dietetics

The following courses are required to be taken through Appalachian State University's DPD program:

NUT 3100 Nutrition Assessment

NUT 4000 Nutrition Counseling

NUT 4200 Advanced Nutrition I

NUT 4206 Advanced NUtrition II

NUT 4240 Medical Nutrition Therapy I

NUT 4250 Medical Nutrition Therapy II

NUT 4504 Foodsystems Management

NUT 4509 Quantity Food Production

NUT 4601 Professional Development for Dietetics

NUT 4920 Senior Seminar for Dietetics

Other requirements for receiving a Verification Statement from Appalachian State University DPD program beginning with 2020-21 Programs of Study:

- Demonstrate minimum of 2.8 GPA in previous coursework for admission, maintain a 2.8 GPA or >
- Minimum of a "C" in all DPD required coursework, no > than 2 repeats in any DPD required course
- Demonstrate completion of all Knowledge Requirements for Dietitian Nutritionists Student Learning Outcomes (KRDN SLOs)