

Hi Hannah,

I love the story behind your brand, especially the way you help your clients and the initiative they take.

Also as a copywriter, I happened to be looking over your Instagram posts etc, and I came up with some ideas of what you could improve to make your customers even more attracted and excited to buy what you're offering.

Let me know if that sounds good, and I'll share more about what could perfectly fit into your coaching program's focus.

Regards,

Arber Melani
