

Names: _____

Date: Oct 26, 2015

Found Poem Rubric

Structure

There are four stanzas, four lines each.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

Each stanza begins with one of Blake's lines and contains three lines from The Kite Runner.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

Synthesis

The selected lines from The Kite Runner relate to the lines from Blake's poem.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

When combined, the lines from the two texts create or emphasize a larger meaning and purpose. In other words, we can read your found poem and see a theme or tone emerging.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

Overall: ____ / 20 points

Names: _____

Date: Oct 26, 2015

Found Poem Rubric

Structure

There are four stanzas, four lines each.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

Each stanza begins with one of Blake's lines and contains three lines from The Kite Runner.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

Synthesis

The selected lines from The Kite Runner relate to the lines from Blake's poem.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

When combined, the lines from the two texts create or emphasize a larger meaning and purpose. In other words, we can read your found poem and see a theme or tone emerging.

Not yet (0)	Developing (1-2)	Strong (3-4)	Distinguished (5)
-------------	------------------	--------------	-------------------

Overall: ____ / 20 points