h. Raven Hill Clinic in Raven Hill [9]

i. Westfall Field Clinic in Unincorporated Westfall [10]

B. Only medical professionals with a medical license from the Stormwind Court of Justice's Crown Services may operate within public clinics.

1. Whereas they are required to have a medical license, medical professionals are not required to be a member of the Stormwind Ministry of Health's Public Health Commission.

2. Regardless of whether or not a medical professional is a member of the Public Health Commission, all public clinics are ultimately under the jurisdiction of the Minister of Health and all medical professionals practicing in public clinics must adhere to orders issued by the minister.

a. Ultimate jurisdiction over public clinic de factos to the Chief Medic of the Stormwind City Guard during times in which the Stormwind City Guard has taken control of a clinic in accordance with Article II, Section H of this act.

C. Any individual from a race with full legal rights in accordance with the Legal Designation of Races Act, including races granted fauna rights, may seek medical treatment of any variety, including mental health care, veterinary care, and dental care, from any public clinic.

1. No individual treated at a clinic will be charged a fee for services rendered.

2. No individual with full legal rights may be denied services from a medical professional at the clinic.

a. In the event a patient becomes unruly, the Stormwind City Guard may disable, disarm, or otherwise detain the patient until they have received healing.

3. All clinics will provide the aforementioned services and be staffed and stocked to provide accommodations for any individual who meets the requirements to be healed.

[10] Proxied at the tents outside of Sentinel Hill

a. Because all clinics are equipped to handle every manner of care, no clinic may present itself as specializing in one specific form of care.

4. Each clinic defined in this act shall offer charging stations for any mechagnome or mechanical construct legally permitted within the Kingdom of Stormwind.

5. In the event a patient is unable to travel to a clinic, the individual may write to the Public Health Commission and request that a medical professional make a house-call; however, this option is only available for those who are unable to travel due to medical conditions.

    a. In the event the responding medical professional determines that the patient abused the right to call for a house-call, the Public Health Commission may require reimbursement for any expenses related to traveling to perform medical care.

6. Prisoners who are actively serving a prison sentence may not be treated at a public clinic, but may have services rendered by a medical professional from the clinic within their cell in the Stockades.

7. Individuals from races with non-citizen species rights, illegal rights, or kill on sight rights may not be treated at any public clinic.

D. All clinics must follow the following guidelines.

1. Upon being admitted as a patient in a clinic and to ensure all patients are properly cared for and treated without error, the following information about each patient will be recorded by the medical professional treating them:

    a. The patient's full legal name

    b. The patient's race

    c. The patient's age

    d. The patient's anatomical sex and preferred gender

    e. The patient's cause of illness or reason for visit

f. Any allergies the patient has must be cataloged and carefully monitored to ensure they do not accidentally be exposed to something that could worsen their condition.

g. An emergency contact that can request details pertaining to the patient's treatment and condition while they are under a medical professional's care.

    i. These contacts do not have to be related to them as long as the patient lists them on their paperwork. Names listed will be the first to be notified should an emergency occur causing them to fall unconscious or pass away while in the medical professional's care. If no contacts are listed, then their next closest relative or spouse will be notified instead should contact be necessary.

2. Any patient booked into a clinic retains the right to refuse medical treatment at any point during being treated or booked unless one of the following conditions is seen in the patient:

    a. Patients who are deemed to be under the effect of heavy intoxication or of unsound mind and incapable of making educated decisions for themselves are not to be released until they have been properly treated and have been found to be in a sober state of mind.

        i. If a patient wishes to dispute their medical professional's diagnosis of not being in their right mind, they are entitled to review by a second medical professional.

            1. Should the second medical professional affirm the first medical professional's diagnosis, the patient may request a review by the Minister of Health. If no such review is requested, the patient will be confined until such time as the first medical professional believes they have regained control of themselves.

            2. Should the second medical professional's diagnosis differ from the first medical professional's, a review by the Minister of Health is required, regardless of the desires of the patient.

3. In either scenario, the Minister of Health will make a final ruling on whether or not the patient is in their right mind.

    a. The diagnosis of the Minister of Health may only be overturned by the Crown Administrator.

b. Patients who are deemed to be a danger to themselves or others are not to be released from care until they are deemed to no longer be a danger to themselves or others.

    i. If a patient is deemed to be a danger to themselves, others, or the medical professionals treating them, or display unreasonable and aggressive behavior while being treated, medical professionals reserve the right to have them restrained for the duration of their treatment.

    ii. If a patient wishes to dispute their medical professional's diagnosis of being a threat to themselves or to others, they are entitled to appeal the designation utilizing the process outlined for disputing a diagnosis of not being in their right mind

c. Patients who are freshly afflicted by the Worgen Curse will not be released from care until it is determined they are still of sound mind and not feral after turning.

    i. Any patient afflicted with the Worgen Curse believed to be feral should be sedated, heavily restrained, and placed in a full face locking mask before being treated to prevent the spread of the Worgen Curse.

d. Patients who are afflicted by infectious disease or toxins will not be released until they have been deemed to no longer be contagious.

e. Patients who are recently afflicted by plagues, such as Blight, will not be released from care until they have fully turned and have been shown to be of sound mind and no longer contagious.

3. Unless noted below, medical professionals will not disclose the details of a patient's treatment or condition to anyone, except their fellow medical professionals aiding in treatment, without the patient's consent. A patient may sign a waiver when initially being booked allowing certain individuals or organizations to be informed of their condition should anything happen or be discovered over the course of their treatment.

a. In matters of law enforcement, medical professionals are required to comply with any law enforcement agency who seeks medical information about a patient treated at the clinic.

b. In the event of a minor, details pertaining to their medical treatment and condition is to be given to their legal guardian. If a minor comes in or is brought in for medical attention and has no legal guardian, then the Director of the Stormwind City Orphanage is to be immediately notified and treated as the point of contact for details pertaining to their condition and treatment instead.

c. Anytime a patient is brought in while they are unconscious, their closest relative or spouse is to be treated as the point of contact for any details pertaining to their condition or treatment.

4. Medical professionals operating in public clinics must adhere to the medical standards, guidelines, and recommendations of the Stormwind Journal of Medical Science.

5. Medical professionals will review any request for a letter of recommendation to the Stormwind Ministry of Magic's Stormwind Circle of Druids for a service animal, though such letter of recommendation should only be written if the medical professional genuinely believes there is a substantial need for the individual to receive a service animal.

a. Individuals unable to acquire their own service animals may receive one free of charge through the Stormwind Circle of Druids Regulation Act.

E. Blood may be stored in public clinics for the purposes of blood transfusions.

1. Blood may be donated by any visitor to a public clinic or at any blood drive coordinated by the Public Health Commission, including those blood drives done in partnership with the Stormwind Ministry of Services' Stormwind City Soup Kitchen during their weekly food drives in accordance with the Stormwind City Soup Kitchen Regulation Act, so long as a licensed medical professional is present to administer the donation.

2. In addition to transfusions, the blood stored in clinics may be used to feed vampyrs who are legally permitted in the Kingdom of Stormwind in accordance with the Legal Designation of Races Act if the blood donor consented to permitting their blood to be used for the purpose of feeding vampyr, though any such feedings should only be done out of a lack of other sources and vampyrs should not come to rely solely on donated blood to feed themselves.

F. Members of the Public Health Commission may employ the use of herbs which contain medical abilities but are otherwise illegal in the event the medical professional has a medical license from the Stormwind Court of Justice's Crown Services and in the event there is no alternative treatment or the medical professional believes that any other treatment would be significantly more challenging for both the medical professional and the patient.

    1. The stock of herbs kept within each public clinic must be kept in a locked storage chamber only accessible to members of the Public Health Commission.

    2. Medical professionals may recommend that a patient be granted a Harmful Drug License from Crown Services in the event they believe their patient should be able to render medical attention to themself through the use of an otherwise illegal drug; however medical professionals themselves must submit this application to Crown Services and cannot grant said licenses themselves.

        a. Any patient issued a Harmful Drug License will have their license revoked 90 days after it is issued by Crown Services.

        b. Any patient issued a Harmful Drug License who is found to have sold their supplied drugs to another individual or who is found to have otherwise misused their license will have their license revoked as well as be found guilty of medical malpractice.

    3. Public clinics will offer rehabilitation services to residents who suffer from substance addictions, including addictions to illegal drugs, tobacco, alcohol, and harmful magics.

        a. Patients may be admitted for inpatient care in any public clinic during their recovery period, though only by either said patient's request or by court order from the Stormwind Court of Justice.

G. In extreme cases where patients are afflicted with a painful, permanent, and otherwise untreatable condition that prevents them from having a basic quality of life, patients retain the right to request a clinically-assisted euthanization in accordance with procedures outlined in the Stormwind Journal of Medical Science, which does not conflict with criminal charges outlined in the Crimes of the Kingdom Act. [11]

1. Unlike other mandated services, doctors may choose to decline to render CAE if it conflicts with their moral or religious values. [12]

H. The Ministry of the Guard, including the Stormwind City Guard and the Regional Administration Division for regions outside of Stormwind City, may temporarily take control of a public clinic during times in which there are emergencies. [13]

1. During times in which the Guard has assumed control of a clinic, entrance to the clinic may be restricted, though patients should still be able to be admitted and treated. [14]

ARTICLE III - FUNDING
