Special Abilities :

Psychic Superpositioning: Yessei cannot directly influence someone's mind, but she can see into someone's past and future, thus increasing her charisma.

Yessei can do magic at an infinite range, but at the cost of depleting her stamina faster.

Property of Negative Reaction: Simplified, Yessei can create objects (but not from thin air). It takes more stamina to change a harder substance, but it is more durable. For example, if she creates a knife out of sand, it will fall apart within minutes. But a knife made of a metal key will take more energy to make, but last a lot longer. Yessei cannot make items longer than her arm, and Yessei cannot make guns or explosives. The bigger the object to create, the more stamina it takes. It takes Yessei anywhere from 2-5 seconds depending on size and complexity of the object to create it. There's a cool down time of roughly 60 seconds after using magic.

Fang Bite: This bite induces toxins and a deep puncture wound, but they do not affect Sirens or Mermaids.

Unlike most concepts of “vampires” Yessei is alive, and thus is susceptible to wounds and broken bones (though less so than humans).
