

Grouping Colors

Lay out some objects, from around the house, that are assorted colors. See if you can find more objects to add to the color groupings. You could arrange them like a rainbow, or a color wheel (shown), or work on one color at a time. Practice saying, or signing, the names of the colors! Can you say any of the colors in another language?

