"Istanbul is a city on two continents, with one foot in Asia and the other in Europe. It is not a capital city now. Ankara is. However, It is used to be the capital of empires and it's still a great world city today. Its name was Byzantium for 1.000 years. It grew rich and powerful because East-West trade routes passed through it. The Romans made it the capital of their eastern empire and for the next 1.000 years people called it Constantinople. When it fell to the Muslims , it's name changed into Istanbul. The Topkapi Palace was the centre of its government. Here, the sultan lived and thousands more worked to rule the Ottoman Empire.
