My Japanese Impact Project Rubric

Grow	Criteria	Glow
	Social Impact: My project was shared with an audience other than me and my teacher. I was able to observe its impact through audience reactions, comments, and feedback. 1      2      3      4      5
I could've done a lot more with what I had and probably put in more variations but I still did it.	Personal Impact: My project allowed me to learn about myself and stretched my comfort zone. 1      2      3      4 5	I was able to actually compose a piece and nitpick it with all the little details I added made a difference.
I should have used more words in Japanese.	Language Achievement: I have learned new words and sentences. I have also become proficient in using new words and phrases in reading, listening, speaking, and writing. 1      2      3 4 5	I learned a lot of instrument names and musical words in Japanese.
I can use the learning I learned in my music as a theme or tone quality.	Cultural Understanding: I have gained new cultural perspectives that are similar and/or different from my own culture. Now I can see things from different viewpoints. 1      2      3 4 5	Reading a lot of folklore is spooky and especially about Yuurei but I learned a lot.

Reflection: What am I most proud of? What would I do differently?

I am most proud of stepping outside of my comfort zone and writing an entire piece that I happen to be happy with. I could've really nitpicked my piece and probably made it a lot better but I'm happy with what I have so it's fine.
