Terms and Conditions

The commissioner may use the pieces they obtain in the following ways:

Personal use; This includes the ability to share pieces online, use as icons, etc. You can make stickers, posters, or other merch for your own personal use and enjoyment. Place credit where applicable.

Streamer use; Some pieces made can be used in a streamer's work if properly credited in an easy to see place. Place credit in descriptions or messages, or in a link directory of some sort.

Commercial use; Requires discussion and potential higher payment/royalties.

If at any time you choose to sell a character or character with images made by Dawn, you cannot sell them for more than you paid for them.

Dawn maintains the right to display pieces made on my social media, website, and portfolio. If you need it to stay on the downlow for a certain amount of time or if it needs to be kept more private that can be discussed further.

Dawn's art cannot be used to train AI, make NFTs or be used in cryptocurrency.

Giveaways

Dawnintheclouds Giveaway Rules

Giveaways

During stream viewers can get giveaway art

Quality for squishy drawings vary based on Dawn's ability level at the time. There is the potential to get a fully shade piece, or just a flat color piece.

Rules for giveaways

- Must have a full/workable reference sheet for a character.
 - References can be just one full body image of a character, or even a sketch with a color palette.
 - Multiple images/a character profile like Toyhouse and backstory/lore is helpful and encouraged.
- Dawn has artistic freedom on the piece. Winners may ask for small design specifics, but nothing major like redesigning a character completely.
 - ie; "can you add some extra markings here that aren't in the original ref?"
"can you do a pose where the character is sitting or looking at something specific?"

Adoptables

Adoptables

This adoptable was designed and made by dawnintheclouds!

For adoptable purchases, please go to <https://ko-fi.com/dawnintheclouds>

All adoptables can be used as pleased, for whatever you want, so long as you credit the designing of the character back to dawnintheclouds. You do not need to add credits every time you utilize the character. Dawnintheclouds reserves the right to draw the character as they please (aka, you might get some free art! Yay!).

If you do purchase a character and get art done of them, please feel free to share them with Dawn on any social platforms! If you have a toyhouse, the adoptable will be transferred to you. If not, it will be archived on toyhouse and all images I have will be given to you in some other form.

If you sell this character and its art, you cannot sell the design for more than you got it for or more than the accumulated art costs.
