The Great Wobble tore Evissima asunder, causing great evil changes in the world,,,,

All of Evissima’s sachets fell into the sea
The continent turned 60 degrees clockwise
Everything on the map happened
All of the islands appeared
Dozens were killed
It’s a good question
A new kind of really big fish was discovered (biggest fish and there’s only three of them (they’ve proven that))

There's been an ice age but its fine now
Everyone's system has changed to Dungeon World

The Contestants

Abyss Gale (Abby for short) - Merfolk Barbarian Goth
Gets around on a wheelchair on account of the land of it all

Big Axe

NO MAN - Sexy Alien Crime Fighter. Tall, handsome and beautiful, here to save humanity
Too serious for Evissima
He has to wear a protection suit
He doesn't like it here (but he knows it's his duty)
His Mind

Marvin & Moo & Meaux - The two headed cow from that poem, but its a cerberus so every time you take off a head two more grow in its place
(That's famously hydras and not cerberuses)
Hunted by Agent 47
Butterfly Knife

Lunar Witch of Death - You know how Moon Knight is an egyptian god? She's that for the God of Death Who Lives Inside the Moon. Lives on the Moon. Punishes and hates M'ungrey
Moon Sorcery
Can reverse time at will to turn back reality as every they wish

Photoshop Jones - Big powerful mage who attacks using the power of Photoshop Jones

The Board of E.V.I.L

5 - Sephiroth

THE WINDLESS KINGDOM (Oak's Bit)

Ancient Jollicent
everything there is super nice and happy and it's a bit much actually. They play a lot of music too. No one's in charge, they re all trans.

The Big Top - The trees all sway to whatever music is playing in The Big Top, a huge tent that is also the capital of the little country of Ancient Jollicent

The Great Oak - In the middle is The Great Oak, which can tell you any secret you want but only if it can be bothered or if it likes your vibe, if not it just pukes out wood monsters to gobble you up. Lexi named it this way before it was my name.

Disney Swamps
Now the home of the rock and roll gnomes

Madison Square Garden (Gnomes) - The seat of power for the gnomes, loud enough to be heard from space

Fit'ness Centre - Home of the one remaining Mud Slut, Sporty Slut, who has a vague truce with the gnomes

Land of the Dead
Closed off… for now?

The Unbetweens
All of the guys from the inbetweens moved their houses to one spot after the Court of the Crucible left. The previous rulers of the Inbetweens were all succeeded by the same person (the son of one of them, the slayer of another and the last dying wish of a third), so even though there's still three factions that don't really get along they're all led by the same guy.

Wibbly Windesham's - It's still here! It's way less eventful. Aggie Badman died so the new headteacher is Gareth Soho.

Big Daryl - Bigger than before

The Deeps
The Tiptoe Territories fell in the Great Wobble, leaving a great gash in the land. The sea is always just like a tiny bit away from fully going all the way in.

The Fizzing Falls - Let me tell you if there's one thing you don't want with a boiling hot lake is for it to be a waterfall

The Hovels - Where most of the people here live under the eyes of the Giant Snail.

The Dungeon of the Last Wind - The Windy Kingdom may be windy no longer but somewhere deep underground lies the forge where they first invented wind.

The Piglands
Muddy and disgusting, the Piglands exist in a state of anarchy following the destruction of St. Saddleback's Academy and the cloisetering of the Sisterhood. By anarchy I mean the pigfolk are just doing whatever.

Ruins of St. Saddlebacks - After the revolt and the inmates started torturing the guards eventually they ran out and all got a bit bored. So they just sort of left it and assumed someone else would deal with it.

The Taj Mahal For Pigs - The new seat of power for the newly appointed Head Chog, who is terrified of mud and has put the Sisterhood in a state of total isolation.

Pig Lake - Self-explanatory

The Oracle - Having been kicked out of the Sisterhood after growing too large, the Oracle now wanders the land, searching for Some Pig.

Evissima Hills
Densely packed population centre on the west coast of Evissima, the Evissima Hills are warm, expensive, and the centre of culture and industry for Evissma on the whole, a fact that nobody fucking likes.

Hollywood - Named after the great taekwondo master, Hollywood is known for producing many movies!

Old Neckery
The lands of King Neck were pretty much destroyed when the moon fell into Evissima during the great Wobble. Luckily, absolutely no-one was there at the time.

The Moon - Once the fragile shell of a death god, the moon is now a big hunk of rock populated by regular robot dinosaurs, some space rats, maybe an alien or two, and the corpses of Wallace and Gromit.

The X Tower - No-one knows who built it or who lives within it. All they know is that no-one who enters ever leaves… No-one has ever entered it BUT that DOES mean no-one's ever left it EITHER.

Big Bungle Bay
Formerly "Pirate's Bay", Big Bungle Bay is a lovely little beach full of sandy dunes, bamboo huts and normal pirates.

Airship Docks - A new fixture in the bay, a tall tower where people can hook up their airships. Conveniently stealable from!

The Titani - A famously unsinkable shi

Pickett's Party Planning Presents: Deadman's Funs (Lexi's Bit)

The Daruma Dungeons
The Evil Warlord Daruma has constructed a hideous labyrinth of dark and dusty dungeons in which he traps his enemies away, that they may never rebel against him. Mainly he traps members of his enemy clan the Maneki-Neko clan in there, but also anyone else he hates. His subjects live happily in a thriving town that is in the middle of all of the Dungeons

Candy Canyon
Due to how shit Gamer Gulch was and in an attempt to santiise its image, members of the Deadman's funs filled it to the brim with delicious candy. Who knows what fate befell the gamers buried beneath,,,?

Plugged Volcano Pressure Palace
The residents of Helarus were keen to increase tourism and present a more palatable image to the rest of Evissima following their evil deeds during The Wobble, and so as an act of recompense have plugged up all their volcanos with big corks, turn on big humidifiers and generally made sure that instead of anything bad happening instead pressure just keeps building up forever. It sucks there

She/They Bay
A wonderful seaside location to splash away with the she/they's of the world, who rule with an iron fish [sic]

The Laundrette of Babel
Another cynical marketing/money making move, the graves that could not be repurposed for Halloween party planning were transformed into legions of coin-operated washing machines as far as the eye can see. To spend too long walking through this ever winding world of endless washerups could drive a man mad,,,,

It's also loud as fuck

Skull Manor
The Global Headquarters of Pickett's Party Planning, who now controls all of the Deadman's fun, this giant manor contains frights and ghouls galore! Fuck!

Monster Island
The Kaiju's in the canyon were relocated as their dangerous nature was not good for business or tourism. They were sent out to live on an island, but kept inland so people can come and visit and they can keep an eye on them. Because of this the island was surrounded by enormous walls to further protect it. After building this they then realised that it is the only way in from the main city so they had to build a big tunnel for traffic and travel on both sides of the wall and there's no other way to get in but through Monster Island

The Formerly Up But Still Very Wild Sidelands (Autumn's Bit)

The Gnoll Hole
Taken over by Mungrey and his clan, is now a den of debauchery and eating hobbitses

Dunetropolis
Home of the Glassfolk, hiding away in their pyramid-shaped necropolises. Giant cacti PLAGUE the overland which forced them underground

Mount Merciful
Tamed by the Glassfolk of Dunetropolis after they poked a hole in the side of it to relieve all the pressure. They then moved it into The Dragon Mountains to add extra protection from the outside world. Sleeps quite peacefully.

The Dragon Mountains
Dragons love this fuckin shit man, they looooooooooooooove mountains

The Space Pirate Port
All the leakage attracted the wormhole to slurp it up. Space Pirates have been utilising it as a place to chillax.

Blazotharus's Rebuilt Tower
Someone rebuilt Blazotharus's Tower at some point, but who? And Why? And When? Well, we know it was almost definitely before it got surrounded by lava.

The Continuous Destruction of Emperor Wetburp
He woke up and is currently fulfilling an ancient prophecy. Hates dock cities.

Ash Dieback's 'Fuck You' Forest
Where Ash Dieback the evil ent spends his days. Is increasingly pissed off at how the soil keeps getting drier.

The Erotic Dungeon of Pleasurable Sex
Hachi-Machi!! Where Lustful Creatures lurk within these sexual walls!!! What horny dirty little treasures could our heroes, or should i say villains, discover!!! Find out next time on Evissimsas

Milky Milky Meadows
Provides all the milk for Evissima. All the farms as well.

NEO HOBBITON
Weed and Nothing exports really picked up after the great wobble. Has become a very bustling little big city that's pushing Evissima into a more modern direction. Incredibly worried that they'll draw the ire of Emperor Wetburp.

The Blood Curdling Abode
All estranged family members own this house for the sole sake of inviting family to stay the night in their will

IKEA 2
They branched out!

The Triplet Towers
Where all the stocks get made! Don't worry about the dragons.

CUSTOMS
You gotta go through here in order to go to Neo Hobbiton but you can just walk around it if you wanna go somewhere else.

The evissima Isles - Max's Bit

Spamton
He appeared. No one knows when or how but this has become a holy site.

The Oceanographic Elevator
A big lift that is used to take people down to the ocean floor. Made by an ocean research centre, used by tourists. When you get to the bottom there are plenty of attractions outside of sea life. Restaurants, experiences, and underwater hotels. As well as labs and research centres.

Scary Island
Home to a summer camp where murders happen, an abandoned laboratory, a spooky castle, deep caverns, a haunted graveyard, and the opening scene of Jaws.

Vacay Cove
It's lovely! Beautiful cliffs, sandy beaches, yummy restaurants, and an all inclusive resort make this the number one holiday destination in Scolavale.

The Evissima Triangle
A deep, dark, triangle shaped hole that will lead you to horrid dangers and certain death. Whatever is down there is near unknown to the outside as no one ever makes it out alive!

Coralantis
After The Great Wobble parts of Coralantis rose to the surface. With the light of the sun giving the people regular schedules, they have adapted to a new way of life. They are not happy with their downstairs neighbours.

Pirates Cove
Where pirates secretly hide their buried treasure. Over the years it has become a very popular spot for it so it's not much of a secret anymore and fights often break out over the treasure. IT's different to peter pan

Skatepark Crater
Was once an island with a whole lot of nothing on it, until it was hit by a meteor and became a haven for all radical skaters. It is like a pilgrimage for so many skaters, they travel there yearly to attempt the great bowl.

The Crumbling Midulent

Skola Vale
Has been reshaped to resemble Mayor Redfirm's head and thats where all the taxes went. Everything else inside of it is more or less exactly the same

Hollywood Bowl
Good for a wet weekend. Named in honour of,,, you know!

The Evissima Villainous Institute League
The arbiters of evil in the world of Evissima have put together a grand tournament to find out who is the greatest villain of them all.

The Creature
Friendly but quite upsetting to behold.

The Hall of Heroes
This place doubles as both a museum to honor all the great heroes of Evissima, as well as a gathering point for the A listers of currently working heroes.

The Last Bastion of the Green City
Fell apart after the wobbling and the territory was quickly snatched up by banditos. The citizens of the Green City built a big wall around them in order to keep all their stuff safe.

The Dark Tower
Root of all evil. Hostel for minions. Very expensive coffee served at the inn on top. Formerly moldy.

Sessions

Session One - Session 1
Google crash landed into Evissima during the first contest of the Plinket Games of True Evil, meeting up with the Gleavwalker and Baby, who were invited, and M'Ungrey, who was the beast they kept in the coliseum to kill everyone. They fought, grabbed the first Dastardly Chit, and killed Marvin and Moo and Meaux twice. They argue about who gets credit for what, and Gleav said that it might be clever to cheat by working as a team, so they do.

Session Two - How To Get Away With Stealing An Airship Without Really Trying
Team Cheating make their way through the Disney Swamps and, being faced with the realities of a globetrotting adventures, decide to steal an airship. Gleav stays at the bottom causing chaos and planning to tear the tower down. The other three all start climbing, navigating through complicated tower defences, eventually reaching halfway where they steal a theater ship from the Zillion Zombies Theater Troupe. Photoshop Jones attacks them, but Baby crashes the ship into him and he ran away.

Session Three - How the Pricks Stole Evissimismas
Team Cheating are asked by Boris Picket through a podcast with Hitch to go to The Great Oak and RUIN Evissimissmass for the townsfolk of Jollicent who eat that shit up. The gang ate long burgers and Google shot Sintervonklaus and then they all torched the Big top. Gnolls and goblins looted shops for Halloween decorations to wrap around The Great Oak, and the dynamic duo of Baby and Google went ice skating where Baby tried to relate to people and then got embarrassed and caused a giant pile up of skaters on the rink. Then the gang went and bothered the Great Oak who spat up the Grunch who attacked them, and then they set him on fire and threw him into the Great Oak, killing him and torching the Oak. The gang flew through the oak and out it's mouth, Gleavwalker grabbing a chit on the way out.

Session Four - Skater One What Was That Called?

Session Five - Sex Dungeon One What Was That Called?

Session Six - A Special Delivery For Mr. Intelligent

Session Seven - The Instantaneous, Perspicacious, and Incredilicious Return of Mr. Intelligent

Team Best Friends had to take overcome a chit-controlled Tayblen (From Evissima 3 remember) being controlled by a Sillian goon who was in the games. They did Triplet Towers 9/11 Kaiju Attack and Gleavwalker burnt down the Chaos Tower.
