Characteristic	Vivid Details & Internal/External	Character Relations
Go through the list of character questions and choose the ones you would like to answer. List your answers under their appropriate section. You are free to keep it simple or be more descriptive.	How does this characteristic affect your character? Provide at least one vivid description that fleshes out the trait or describes how it affects him/her. You may not bring all of these descriptions into your actual story; what is important is that you know them. This is also the section to figure out the internal motivations for external traits as well as the external manifestations of internal traits.
