

Yaroslav [Last Name]

Kazakhstan | Email: [your email] | Portfolio: <https://artreflect.space>

Profile

Interdisciplinary student exploring the intersection of art, history, and psychology. Focused on uncovering hidden meanings in artworks and using art as a tool for reflection, dialogue, and social awareness.

Education

High School (Kazakhstan) — Expected Graduation: 2026

Relevant Interests: Art History, Research, Design

Projects & Research

ArtReflect.space — Founder

- Created an online platform for teenage artists to express personal experiences and mental health themes through art
- Curated and presented works as part of a growing digital exhibition

3×3 Lens Method — Independent Research

- Developed a framework to analyze hidden symbols and layered meanings in artworks
- Applied to case studies including Renaissance and modern paintings

Research Project: Diffusion of the Renaissance

- Exploring how Renaissance ideas spread beyond Italy through cultural exchange (Silk Road concept)
- Preparing visual mapping of artistic and intellectual influence

Leadership & Activities

Lecture Series Creator

- Delivered 10+ lectures explaining complex art history topics in accessible language
- Engaged audiences in discussion of symbolism and interpretation

HundrED Global Collection — Reviewer

- Evaluated 18+ global education innovations
- Contributed to selection and feedback process

Moonshot Pirates — Project Participant

- Developed 'Energy in Every Step' concept (energy generation from footsteps)
- Selected among Top 30 teams

Awards & Recognition

- Honours List — Immerse Education
- Shortlisted / submitted — NYT Student Essay Contest (Art Analysis)
- Selected Projects Recognition — Moonshot Pirates

Skills

Research & Analysis | Art Interpretation | Public Speaking | Figma & Visual Design | English
(B2, progressing to C1)