

Supplee CCJ 230 Chapter 9 Quiz

Community corrections refers to the use of incarceration as the primary form of punishment.

- True
- False

Diversion is a community corrections option that aims to divert individuals away from the criminal justice system.

- True
- False

Evidence-based practices have no relevance in the field of community corrections.

- True
- False

Mass incarceration refers to the decreasing number of individuals in correctional facilities.

- True
- False

Restorative justice is a community corrections approach that focuses on repairing harm caused by crime and reintegrating offenders into the community.

- True
- False

Which term refers to the supervision of individuals in the community as an alternative to incarceration?

- Diversion
- Parole
- Probation
- Restorative justice

Chapter 9 Quiz by Roxie Supplee for Open Oregon Educational Resources is licensed CC BY-NC-SA.

What is the primary goal of community corrections?

- Retribution
- Mass incarceration
- Rehabilitation
- Reintegration into the community

What does the term "specialty courts" refer to in the context of community corrections?

- Courts that specialize in prosecuting violent crimes
- Courts that handle cases of mass incarceration
- Courts that focus on evidence-based practices
- Courts that address specific types of offenses or populations in a problem-solving manner

What is the main issue associated with overcrowding in correctional facilities?

- Insufficient staffing
- Limited access to evidence-based practices
- Increased risk of violence and health concerns
- Inadequate funding for community corrections

What is the primary goal of restorative justice?

- Punishment
- Rehabilitation
- Community protection
- Repairing harm and restoring relationships