What just happened here?

Two things. One thing.
One thing.

I find it hard to just watch this. Its like they fell asleep and then woke up and then again they fell asleep. Or that they knew coding but then totally forgot about it. If you ain't noticing what I am noticing then.. What happened? This is a clue though.

ITS LIKE SO TOTALLY OBVIOUS! That is to a CODER.

Now that we are still talking about coding. What is this? Scroll down..

So.. this means actually that.. people's memories are not intact.

Memory loss, huh? Why so many?

This is even from 2009. :(((

I can't watch this =_ =!

This is coding. What does this say? What does this mean? For a web developer this should be obvious. It's got what in it? And it tells about what? If you don't have any clue about what this is then.. I can't help you out. If you have totally missed this I can't help you out either. Some of you people did learn web developing right? Another clue.

Are you people sure you know web development? ...

Khoa Do - Ken.

After 13-14 years you finally show up.

You also want me to remember you, after such a long time. Why?

Why is it so important that I remember you, to you? Now, after 13-14 years?

Because all I have kept hearing is how, memories don't matter...

Came from a person now keeping a check on his dates. Hard to believe.

I took a screenshot of this pretty fast. I hope you don't mind. But this is NOT surprising to me. Considering the pandemic. Both you and I know what I am talking about. I don't believe your math intelligence can be so bad. Right? You are much more intelligent than that. ^^ or else you wouldn't have gotten so high and done so much. ^^

All this time while leaving people all around you, not keeping your word.. list goes on.

I believe you already can look ahead about 10 years so it should not be any problem for you. THINK that the pandemic will go for about 2 years!

(Btw this is called empathy, if you did not know)

2020-07-31

It is moving slowly upwards.

I wonder if this is called Karma.

Just look at that.

Sometimes it's better to give people what they want.

Paper and Numbers. It's called in another word: Money.

I hope you are reading this.

No, I am not a Witch.

Maybe, you have learned to be a provider now.

Grown to be a man. Learned to love a woman.

Settled down, married and having your own family and children.

How else are you going to provide for your children?

Being true to it and actually matured.

Don't worry, this is not the end of the world.

I'm kind and telling you. You know "Kindness".

Because I know how you know and you know how I know.

You are gonna become an even better man.

You are on a good way. I believe in you and support you.

After all, I am you. Just a more future self. A grown man.

At least there should be no revenge to take.

What do I reply when he asks "Let's play Scions of Fate again?"

(I am just crawling back to my ex and asking her to play an online game together with me again. Maybe it will work?)

Suddenly his motivation went up. And again there is the "Sorry".

"Sorry I never meant to ever hurt you" "I had true feelings for you before"

I'm going to be super honest here.

If you keep hearing "I'm sorry" as much as I have done.

You would grow tired of it too. It's like a broken record going "Sorry" "Sorry" "Sorry".

I will create a recorded video later about this.

I work a lot so I will have to do it when I have time.

Just putting that up on my list on what to do.

By the way:

Hearing this word all the time makes it lose its meaning.

Just dealing with everyday words.

Well, in case you need more evidence and maybe you can find out more.

Let's just try this out. I thought maybe I can find out some more this way. And wow, did I find out more? A whole lot of information.

"Mr O is a big Pussy talk to her"

Are they matching us together? Talk about not considering other people's feelings.

I wonder if this is some kind of coding message.

(No one understands anything. Don't look at me... I have no clue.)

"CC if you see this screw u for the DB Ring"

..... What is this? screw you for the DB Ring?

What does this mean though? I have no idea. If anything could be even more confusing.

(It's like when you randomly get mad and just yell out whatever. Agitated much?)

I bet you know what I am talking about.

(No one understands you!)

This will do! (CAP LETTER!)

Why not? We don't have anything better to do? or do we?

“Yamen why so mad dude? need a bun?”

(When everyone else notices the angry reactions)

I wonder. (This temperament is his temperament though. No doubt.

Definitely his.

Anger issues. Anger scale? 200 MAX. All this anger built up inside of him all the time.

Did you know “Sadness turns to Anger and Anger turns to Hate and Anger/Hate turns to Violence?”

When nothing goes my way. I get angry. This is since childhood. Of course people around me are going to react.

The Design pattern looks exactly like Myths Design pattern for Harry Potter but using his name? That is very interesting. I don't want to know... What did you do with him? Dont tell me! Just, dont tell me.

Maybe he wants you too? Good luck with that! I thought you had a boyfriend? Nope.. maybe not.. It's already enough knowing about Asa and him.. and being in between them.. Don't drag me into your people's double relationship lives..

That is too much drama and too much fiction.. I think you forgot me in between here.. Like always and every single time. Why?

It's the same when you and Yami are dragging me into your relationship..

That is a lot of drama and a lot of fiction.. our relationship is not working! Help us!

Here I feel like a mother.. What's wrong in your relationship my children?

It's not my business if you people want to be together with two men..

That is up to you and Asa..

Yet every time I have to be dragged into it.. keep this to yourselves!

I don't want to know if you go to bed with him and him and him and him..

I don't double time.. if you do then fine then you do.. It's your choice..

But to me it's just disgusting.. I believe in loyalty and being with one person..
Yet I also know about incompatibility..

1. I feel like Yamis mother and your mother as well.. incompatibility..

I do not feel like a woman in his presence.. but then you may go.. "well a mother is a woman"..
I am in the same age range as him.. I am not supposed to feel like his mother.. He is not my son and I am not his mother.. He is not the only man/boy I feel like a mother 2 though..

We can take Myth as an example.. I feel like his mother 2.. all the advice he is asking for.. it's a lot...

2. I love and I will always love him.. not in the way you guys think though and believe..

you make such scenes about it.. this always gets turned into like out of proportion.. Make such a huge deal out of something that is so small.. I don't understand why.. If you get jealous.. you are insecure.. you probably want me to be jealous of you.. but I am not jealous of you one bit..

3. during 2007 up to 2010 there existed no movie inside of the game itself.. It seems like this started during 2010? maybe earlier.. Last time I remember coding was in NeRv.. after that my memories of coding disappeared.. my memories of the people I played the game with disappeared.. memories of Myth disappeared.. memories of RyuKojiro disappeared..

I believe that these people are entitled to a salary.. why? because they have been part of a movie that they did not know/or they did know but did not get paid for.. some of these people might go on medication.. might go to the hospital.. they might have parents that are ill.. siblings that are ill.. family members that are ill.. I believe that these people are entitled to know the truth.. I believe these people are entitled to know..

4. "She is nice for real" I don't see how? "She is only like this online and then differently offline" double personality? Too much online and too little offline?

5. I don't regret the choice I made. I fell in love with Darky.

I would have made that choice again and again and again.

Game of Thrones - season 7. Winter is here. More Game of Thrones. Did you even notice the coffee cup? what a huge mistake. Maybe you missed that one. I have never watched the whole show actually. Even though so many are talking about it.

I don't think I ever will watch the whole series, because of that one coffee cup.

It's supposed to look old, everything is supposed to look old. And they miss that cup.

https://youtu.be/14jyY-ZOZ_k?si=X0jORR7smn-7K0zP

I remember watching a movie and the whole cameraman was showing in the shadows in the grass. I am so surprised no one ever noticed. The whole cameraman.

You can see a silhouette in the grass, the whole cameraman.

The movie is very old. The movie is from 1993.

(I love Denerys though. The actress doing the role as well. Gorgeous. Also I love the story between Denerys and Jorah. Because of Jorah's loyalty to Denerys. Loyalty is hot!!! LOYALTY C'MON)

I got three issues with you. One is doing Japanese manga characters but not putting up that it is Fan Art like you are claiming their work. That is a lack of respect to the Japanese people which created Anime and Manga. Those characters were not created by you. The story about them were not created by you. They do not belong to you at all. You are so disrespectful. That is caring more about yourself than other people. I thought maybe there is some connection between you and Laura Bailey.. but there is no connection there at all.. And its as far away from empathy as there is. You don't seem to understand all the time or all the making in the process. The love, the struggle, the emotions, the feelings..

The other thing is that you paint, but you don't paint from the heart or from your soul. You paint what others wants you to paint. Its not something that actually comes from you. For me its horrible to keep watching it. Can you at least paint something from your heart and soul? You know you. The cat was maybe something...

You need to put your heart and your soul into what you are painting.

The third issue for me is that you are so insecure. Somehow in your mind you keep believing that I will steal your boyfriend from you. Why is this? Somehow you have decided in your mind that I will somehow steal him away from you. How come? And somehow people keep believing that him and I have been or are together. Why do they do that? Which is not true. From what I know of, he is not vietnamese. Is he?

Did he just automatically change into an asian? exactly! I would like to know how that is even possible.

Or is he? He is not even "asian" god dammit! He is not even close to being "asian".

This couldn't be even more tiring for me. You are not with him, apparently I am. Why is this? It's not only hurting me but it's hurting him as well.

While I am already in a relationship with an "asian man". I'm taken, people.

(This relationship ended 2023)

It's not my fault that people keep believing that him and I are... or have been. Why are you pointing the finger at me?

Be more open with your relationship and show it more to the world then maybe it wouldn't happen. But it is happening. Why is it happening??? Can you explain to me why it's happening? How about telling me why it is happening..

If you keep comparing yourself to me you are never going to bloom by yourself and create your own things. Which I know you can do. If you keep being jealous of me, you will never be able to shine by yourself. If I even have the time to be jealous of you, which I don't have. Which you seem to have, I wouldn't do other things in my life at all.

If you keep being insecure, it's not going to be good for your health. If you keep wanting to be me, then you must really not like who you are. Why is this???

Again. When are you gonna paint paintings that you love and that you feel like you want to paint? It's just sad for me to watch this. Who asked you to paint this?

It reminds me of society. If only you knew and you actually don't know anything.

One day maybe you will wake up, but not now. For now this is the society that you want.

But this society will fall and a new will come. It's already beginning.

Or else I wouldn't be in this state. More people are waking up.

Because it is time for them. What is happening now is impacting the future.

And the future is about to change.

You can't and you don't have the power to do anything about the change. Sadly.

More people and more people and even more people are going to wake up.

I don't want to be a part of your society that is the society that is now. I don't want to be a part of your cult as well. Because it is a cult. If that means killing other people. We are supposed to go around and kill others and destroy their brains and their lives? or push them into suicide? I'm guessing this is how Darkling and Tsukimae died.

Don't you have anything better to do? Guess not.

Like a future together with the one you love. Children and helping others?

Nah, let's create some drama and we go after a woman we don't like because our own life is so bad. And our relationship is so bad cause we aint focusing on that. Instead this woman gets all the focus. See, where I am getting at? You put all your attention towards me. It is still happening to this moment. It's amazing how much the focus is put on me, but not put into the relationship. Honest, truth.

I cant keep watching talent go to waste like this. I say this because I care and I would like you to paint from your heart and soul and what you want to paint yourself. I would like to see those paintings.

Also I don't like people who only care about themselves.

No names mentioned.

That lacks empathy, feelings, emotions, care..

The only one you care about is yourself.

What about Venezuela? Do you know what is happening in Venezuela?

Do you know what is happening to the people there?

No? Are the people happy there? Are the people unhappy there? You don't know?

What about South Korea and North Korea? Do you know what is happening there?

Are the people happy? Are the people unhappy?

What about Hong Kong and China? Do you know what is happening there?

Are the people happy? Are the people unhappy?

What about the USA and Venezuela? USA and China? Afghanistan and Syria?

Italy? Spain? France? Russia? No?

I get sick every single month. Do you??? Have you been sick for years since the age of 16??? Even though I get sick every single month. Even though my body shuts down every single month, I still care about people. I still have empathy for other people.

People come to me for advice. Love advice, Life advice, help, future issues.. If I didn't have empathy or cared about others, I wouldn't even help them out or give them advice.

People that are poor ask me for help. I can understand that because their situation is a lot different than mine. Sometimes when you are poor, you envy what other people have and you do not have. People that are rich ask me for help. I understand them. Because in the situation they are in. The attention they get and everything.

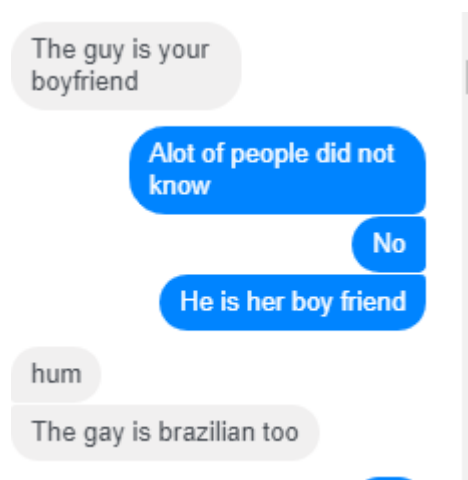

I understand both sides.

Yami told you to keep doing what you love. He never once has told me that.

He never once has supported what I love to do. Never ever. I have been kind and supported both him and you, but never once gotten any support back.

But then again, I get to read everything he writes about others.
And it's not all that good. It's very depressing actually. I get to read that.
No wonder people have depression.
He shows this nice facade but actually underneath he is super negative, with lots of anger issues.

Everything he does reminds me of the first love of my life.
And he was 18 years old at that time. I was 16. Yami is not 18 though!
But acting very similar to that 18 year old version.
18 years old. 18! Hello? Should that be worrying? Yea. He passed 18 years old, long time agos. Didn't he? Or is he automatically stuck at 18 years old? It is worrying.

That people believe I am together with him. Great...
The reason he and I are not together is because I at that time and even now, respect his relationship and whom he wants to be with. We are NOT compatible.

There are alot of reasons for that. I can make a whole list.
One of the reasons being that, I feel like his mother.
Pushing him to do things, pushing him in his relationship, pushing him as a leader...
Which in itself is friendship like, kindness like.. to support someone.

The feeling of feeling like his mother, is not a nice feeling.

It's like aren't we like the same age and everything? Even his little brother I feel like a mother too. They already have a mother. Why am I feeling like their mother?

I'm flattered but I am already in a relationship. I have it tough as it is. (It ended 2023)

With a lot of proposals and confessions.

(When couples do not make their relationship public.

It's not my responsibility.) But others might misunderstand. CLEARLY!

I don't have anything against "black" people. Gotta use the labeling cause of society. These people are like any other people.

I got proposed by one and we are still friends, so.. (not anymore, he got too pushy)

Of course I stole her boyfriend away.

Because well I did not have anything better to do in my life.

It is not the first time this has happened to me.

Can't be that two people feel so bad in their relationship that They need a third wheel. And that is why I get in the middle?

Seems like you both need to work on your relationship.

Why drag someone in between? Really, people?

And again. This is also something that is not from your soul. A Lot of your paintings feel like others are influencing you to do and that it is not something that actually comes from you. This is actually how I feel.

(About Myth and Asa)

I know though! I know! "Some way to get her into bed." Sigh...

It could not be more obvious. ~If only for one night! (*singing)

Since you are stalking her like this it's creepy as hell.

You may have some problems here.

Serious ones. Get a girlfriend..

(I just get this feeling of your face in front of her window peeking in and drooling with like drool all over your face.) -Stalker mode on- bip bip bip..

(I want to throw up. The thought of me just peeking into a person's window and just watching this person in a lustful way and stalking this person for days is just not clicking for me.

Even less clicking for me if this person is taken. Why waste your time like that?)

When you are thinking about someone alot. And they are always on your mind. You like them. If you keep checking her fb all the time. You like her. And want to know what is up with her. You do know why you keep looking at her fb. It is a form of stalking though. Since you keep doing it. (I just never seem to know myself? I am always so confused in my life. I never know up from down or down from up. Because I never seem to look into myself and ask myself a lot of questions. That's why I need advice from a woman. Which just happens to be you. Let me lean on you here.)

Men are never in need of a woman. Never. Look at this. Not ever. Right?

Another clue. "someone report you guys stealing char? Some dirty play. Mine was a mistake." Thank you. Not very clever I see.

Did you ever expected me to screen shot this?

If not, then it's too late by this time.

How many times do I have to mention this? Cause' it does not seem to go through. Yes I broke up with him. He told me he would be gone for three days. The reason why I broke up with him? Trying to force marriage upon me. Fake Proposal. Does he love me? Important question. Figuring marriage is "In sickness and health". How many stick by that? or even know what that means? Does he love the real me? (Lets rush into a marriage with someone who does not know the real me.) Does he care about me? Does he know my birthday? Does he know my fav color? Does he know my fav food? Does he know what I love to do? Does he know my fav movie? Does he know my fav game? I want love. L-O-V-E. I wont get it from him. It did NOT feel real. What I mean is coming from him, it did not feel real. From him it did not mean anything. So I find it weird that it even bothers others.

When it was never true.

So how many times am I gonna hear this whining? (He is older in age.)

It's been going on for years.

You should not be the one whining. Since you are not him. Though you did share the same account as him. Why do YOU keep whining? WHY?

It feels like I had a relationship with you and not him. Since all you do is whine.

Get a girlfriend? I forgot about him, just like he did me. He does not even remember my wish. He will not ever remember my wish.

He said Sayonara “Goodbye” and then he left.

And if you have forgotten. It's the time you told me he quit the game.

And you told me his name. I have an amazing memory so far of it.

For those who believe I played him or tricked him or did not mean anything or whatever they like to believe in their minds. Because minds have a way of telling things to others that ain't true. Because they do not know the whole story. It was the other way around.

Would I have just drawn his ingame character for the fun of it all? Seriously?

No. It was because I wanted it as a reminder. Here we have the like again.

How people do not understand this is beyond everything I have ever known.

See, why I question people's intelligence.

I have been proposed to so many times. But do they actually love the real me?

Do they? Do they know the real me? Yes? No? Maybe? Come walk in my shoes.

This feels like a relief.

I have kept hearing on how I made a mistake.

Tell me how did I make a mistake again?

If you ever wanted love from someone, then gotten love.. ever wanted a proposal, and then gotten it.. but nothing is true. Who does that hurt? Not the one making up things that aren't true, that is for sure. But the one wanting love. The one actually wanting it.

Tell me, how does it feel inside when someone does not respond to your feelings?

Does it hurt? Does it feel painful?

I did not need the messages.

It's been years and years and years. Still you keep whining about it.

Tell me, if he loved me so much. Why am I not hearing anything from him? Why didn't he teach me more Vietnamese? Exactly. Because One, he does not remember. Two, he never cared or loved me.

I guess I will keep on hearing this whining for years and years and years again.

We all want love though. It is something we all have in common. Even you.

Lets ask ourselves some questions shall we. What makes her happy? Who makes her happy? What makes her happy? Does her happiness make you happy? Or does her happiness make you unhappy? If so then why does it make you happy? If so then why does it make you unhappy? Why am I looking at her fb page? Why cant I get her out of my head?

Everything starts with you.

That is not according to my brain. Once again, it's not according to my brain.

Because I got psychosis in 2017.

You can tell me a million times I am not dead and it's not gonna work.

I've had so many people telling me and it's not changing anything.

You can tell me a million times that I was not killed by people from the game and it's not gonna work.

Which is why I am wondering what actually happened to Tsukimae and Darkling.

They played the game as well. What actually happened to them?

Wow. Comes from the man who comes to me for advice in his life.

Because men do not need women, do they? (Only for constant life advice.)

(About ZeroYami and Ron)

"Their obsession with pop idols is not healthy"

How kind. "He never treats me badly" was it?

Only behind your back. What was that talk about, Kindness?

And this I have to read. This is super depressing.

(About ZeroYami)

Which is one-sided. You have never ever considered me your friend.

I respect that, that you don't have any of those feelings for me. Still you kept and kept on treating me badly. Separating me from everyone else. Separation hurts a lot. It's as far away from unity as possible. Which you people keep talking about. "Unity". Still I am meant to be alone and be by myself. How is that unity? To separate people. Is this unity? I don't think so. Divide and split up people. Cut them off. People don't need relationships. Wrong. So everyone in this world should be separated from one another? Is this the world you want? Separated families. Separated children. It's already happening in this world. And it is horrible to even watch. Separated children from families. Separated people from families. Separated people from other people because of a wall. Separated "Black" from "White" (labels). I'm getting tired of hearing labels. With what happened. First it started with a death. But then later it became a racist anger. We are angry because of the death, okay. What does the racist anger have to do with it? Why does it feel like "we are hurt" went into "pity us, cause we got different color"? Really? And then just let us all destroy things and make a total mess out of everything. Is that helping U-S? the people? Is this unity? are we more united this way? or are we separating ourselves from the "White" people? are we seeing ourselves as more supreme beings? or are we seeing the "White" as more supreme beings? Are we seeing the "White" as a threat to us? Are we concerned about labels? Are we not concerned about labels? To me we are all humans. Pointing the finger and expecting everyone is the same. You have to believe not everyone's the same. We have the power to change the world. I used to believe all men are the same. All men are not the same. I had such hatred for men. So in the way of the hatred I had for men. I can understand if a man has hatred for a woman. It is because they have been hurt by one. Not all women are the same. It's called being afraid. As much as I have been through and as much as I have been hurt. Is as much as you all are afraid of me. -> Separation and bullying or cyberbullying is not unity. So all this unity talk is just "talk". Same with "kindness" it's just talk. I just can't hear another "you need to be kind" or "the world needs more kindness" with so much pain and hurt that these people are treating other people. It's like they are so hurt themselves that they don't understand that they are hurting other people. Let's call the people we don't think are kind a lot of awful things. Lets treat them as awful as possible. Because they are not kind, we are. Kindness where?

Telling me it's my "fault" you are in the position you are in. Take responsibility. You will never take responsibility for anything that you do. Not now. Not later. Not ever. You are not mature enough to do so. I'm not taking this upon me and I should not do it either. Someone like me, who has period pains, brain injury and depression. And I forgot to mention: Lactose Intolerance and Gluten Intolerance. Oh, yea let's put the blame on someone who has a sick body. Treat the person who has a sick body the worst you can. Call her things. Treat her badly. Tell her lies.

Lets just compare a bit here.

You have a dad. I don't.

You can eat gluten products. I can't.

You dont have period pains each month.

"I'm actually surprised you still remember him"

Thank you for the confession. Yes and No I would say.

Do I remember him? In a way. Do I not remember him? In a way.

He exist, yet he don't. It is hard to explain this.

He played Scions of Fate. I believe we were in the same guild?

Will my memories of him be fully recovered? ever?

I can't answer that. Most likely -> not.

You see, I got a brain damage/damaged brain after playing SoF, also called brain injury 2007-forward.

I didn't think you wanted me dead. The thought never crossed my mind.

Now I just need a confession about what happened to Tsukimae and Darkling.

Two people can't just die without reason.

That is not possible.

(About Rose)

Can you actually imagine this woman being a nurse?

I can't anymore. I just lost all of that.

For someone that gets sick every single month and then reading this.

Makes you lose faith in nurses. You are not setting a great example..
I know a nurse personally and she is a lot more caring than this.
I actually know more than just one. One stands out more from the others though.

"Your my best friend/sister/partner since we care for one another"

The caring I had for you wasn't the same caring you maybe had for me.
Not in a long way. Else I would not have ended up in a hospital.

(About Lorenzo)

"You cannot be aware and then unaware.. or unaware and then aware.
I don't expect for you to understand or even become aware.
I don't expect someone unconscious to become conscious.
I don't expect you to understand me.

You are in your anime movie made up reality. Which I am not a part of.

I am not a part of this cult.

Your reality is different from my reality.

You have been given a role in an anime movie made up reality that you are aware of.
I on the other hand. Have not. I am unaware. Like many other people.
Like youtubers and streamers and other gamers.
But then in my reality and other people's reality which I am grounded in. You are unaware.
Because for you everything is an anime movie made up reality.
That is why those unaware of it. Which still are unaware of it.
Some people that I know from the game for instance.
Some of my friends from the game. They are completely unaware.
Which means I am not alone.

->There is a difference between knowing your role you have been given and not knowing which role you have been given."

ZeroYami

I don't plan on anything, but as I've told you before: leave me alone and don't bother sending me any of your nonsensical messages. Find someone else to harass.

You're being blocked now, and if I receive more of your messages another report will follow.

"Find someone else to harass"?

When I come out with the truth I am harassing.

What about everything you have said to me?

What about all the downgrading things you have told me?

What about all the nasty horrible words you have said to me?

What about all the jealousy towards my boyfriend in SoF way back, how you wanted us to break up? Darky and us durin NeRv House.

What about how you and your family and your friends are trying to kill me?

What about lying to me for years and not telling me that I could code?

My coding memories disappeared during being in your guild "NeRv".

Why do I remember that now? Because in that time you had a NeRv forum and on that forum I used code and also a signature design. During this time you were super angry, so angry for some reason and I have no clue why. When I think about it. It only comes down to jealousy. Jealousy for being together with someone. So I believe you were jealous. You wanted us to break up and you wanted it to happen fast. I don't know why. It was not acceptable for you that we were together. You wanted my boyfriend to share his account with you. I got angry. Why do you want to break other people apart that are together? I still don't know why. Why do I want to break a couple apart? I don't like them being together and they shouldn't be together. What do I gain from breaking a couple apart? Nothing. What am I expecting to gain? Love? Affection? Popularity? Friends? This was way before Liminality even existed.

People are still thinking it's because of a car accident.

It's not because of a car accident.

This happened during SoF.

What about my memories being gone? What about my childhood memories? My memories of my mother? My memories of my father? My memories of my best friend? My memories of the people playing SoF? First time meeting people in SoF?

Everything disappeared. I wouldn't wish anyone to experience this. To this day it's still "I know you, we have met. You exist, yet you don't exist"

Why do I not want people to experience this? Imagine having memories of your best friend from way back, your childhood. And suddenly these are gone. This is your best friend, the one who has stood by you since all this time. The one you did all these childhood things with that you won't tell anyone. The one who teaches you things. The one who you shared everything with. And then these memories are no longer there. To experience headaches and then suddenly one piece of a memory comes back. And you thinking "Is this all I am getting back"? Imagine if you lost the memory of your girlfriend or your boyfriend or your wife or husband. Why would you want memories back? Because it's a puzzle piece of your life.

Now other struggles that come with memories being gone and not being totally formed. Is studying. It's your daily life. It's the future. With a brain damage/brain injury or a damaged brain this is horrible. You don't remember a single thing. Which day is it? You lose track of the days. What did I do yesterday? I couldn't remember what I had done the day before. Whom did I meet? Whom did I talk to? What did I read? What did I watch? You try to read or watch something but memories are not being formed. You are in a complete state of not being able to form new memories. Why can't I form new memories?

Why don't I want others to go through psychosis? Even my worst enemy, I wouldn't want any person to go through it.

"sending me your nonsensical messages"

I bet you are just too lazy to read what I write.

"I am the victim". "please, pity me". "I am black". "pity me because I am a man".

Wow, I wish I was black. It seems like "pity me, I am black" works wonders in society.

And also "pity me, because I am a man". I wonder how people would react if I did the same. It's weird to believe that people go down to this level.

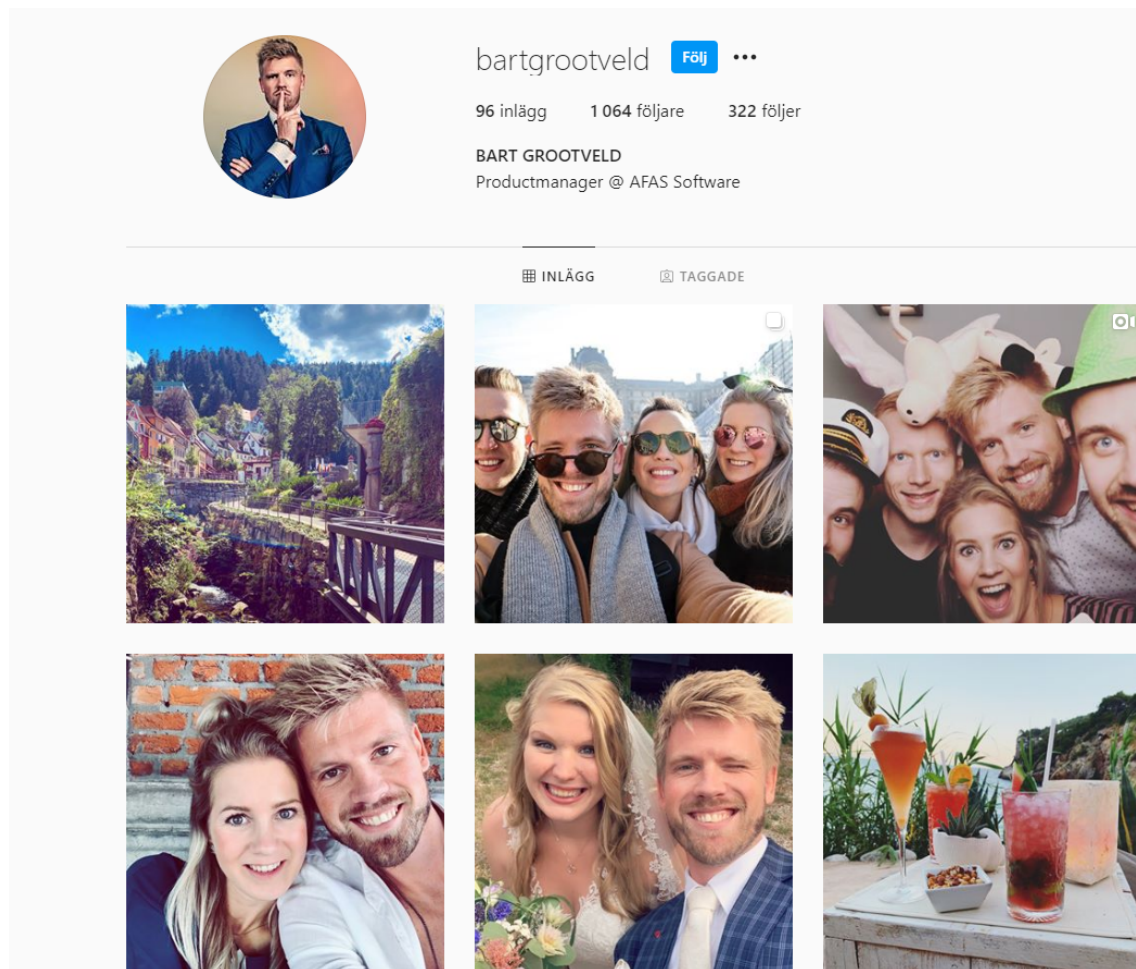

Not like you have blocked me on every platform already.

"Another report will follow"

The one who reported me and got my other accounts banned was you.

That's nice. So how many accounts in SoF did you get banned during your time playing the game? How many people have you pushed into suicide?

Darkling and Tsukimae?

This guy here. Is the guy that was in the movie together with Yami in 2010.
 This guy look rich? This guy looks like he got more money than any of my friends or anyone that I know of. That includes myself.

These people want me dead. These people have more money than I do.
 Why would you want a regular person like that dead? Ask yourself that. You have so much money that no regular person ever would have. Why would you want to kill this other person? If you are rich like this? Does that make sense? Because to me it does not make sense.

How many that I have played Scions of Fate with, do actually know about this?
 How many know about a movie? How many know about this guy? Raise your hands.

Let's continue shall we...

Have you all even considered if others ever wanted to be a part of anything?

Yes? No?

People like me who have chronic illnesses/diseases and constant pain for example.
 Because of the cyberbullying that we have been experiencing since 2007 our brain is very injured. After the experience 2017 our brain got even more injured.
 Some of us want to be more part of reality than actually part of a fiction.

This account here is fake. Why?

Steven Seagal Nomena. An actor that has been in under siege, under siege 2, knows Aikido and ALSO is a cop. How many know about this? I do. He is shown on television, I have watched him there. Would Steven Seagal have time with this? The answer would be no. Would he be directing a video game? The answer would be no. Which only leads this to a fake account.

How many know that this guy has been directing a video game? None?

I will come to that as well. This what you are seeing here is 2010. Same year that the movie was created by Yami and Bart. Is that a coincidence? Oh, trust me there is more.

Love Scenes That Went Too Far

The Surprise Sci-Fi
Movie That's Killing
it on Netflix

Here comes the interesting part. You can google this. It's easy to find.

Born 1997. Actor? Horror Land 2? And this video game that does not exist.

Who is this? His little brother. Has he played scions of fate?

Yes, he has. Hands up here people. How many know about which role inside of this game they had? and inside of this movie that they created? Ima formulate it a bit differently.

How many knew this guy and his brother created a movie inside of scions of fate?

How many of you were given a role? How many of you knew what to do in this movie?

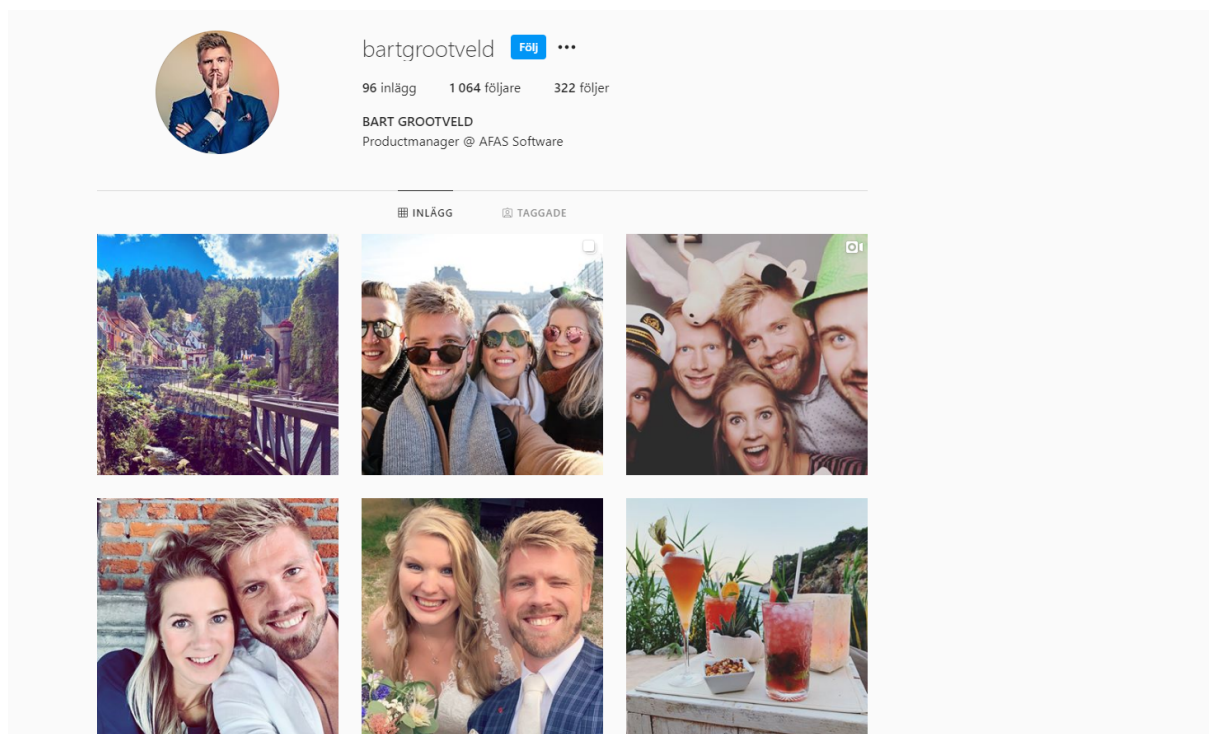

This is very important. Why is it important?

Because so many don't know and so many don't have a clue. Why do I know this? Because I ask people.

Now why is it important? A Lot of children play this game or have been playing this game.

How would a child react in a situation like this? What would happen to a child in a situation like this? Let's do some empathy work here. What if the child was Bart's?

What if the child was Yami's? What if the child was Caesar's? What if it was YOUR child?

Can you tell me the similarities of the upper picture and the photo of Bart Grootveld?

It's in this sect to not talk or to not say anything. To be quiet.

So everyone's supposed to not say anything. It's like their quiet little game.

If someone even speaks up. Oh, no.. this is terrible. What happens when someone tries to speak their opinion or starts talking? We find a way to quiet this person down. By any means necessary. So this is how this sect operates. If you talk, they will steal. Everything that they can steal and make your life a living nightmare. Until you give in to being quiet. Like all the members here. All they ever want is for you to not being able to speak your opinion, to not be anything, to not have the luxury that they have, to not have the life that they have, to give up on everything that you like, to give up on everything that you love, to break you down until you give in to them or take your own life. This is how this sect works.

It's like a society sect to quiet other people down. Society is already doing this and now there is a society sect as well that is doing it. You may say that well I feel like they are not for society. They are for society for sure. But a different society sect. Where they have the power of course. In China for instance you are not allowed to speak. In North Korea. In other areas of the world. We can kill people and get away with it. We can take their memories. We can destroy their brains. And these people feel proud of this. Cause why not? We have the power and we can do whatever we like. For now, maybe. For years, maybe. Until people find out the truth of course. The similarities with this sect and the normal regular society is not that different all together. It's all the same. Why is this picture painted? It's to tell the others in the sect to keep quiet and not open their mouth. Once they do, they have confessed to a lot of things that they should not do. Because they only hurt people when no other person is watching or no other person is close by. When they can gather together in a group sect and then attack others.

If you believe that this sect has empathy, emotions or even feelings. Think again! These people DO NOT have empathy, emotions or even feelings. They are using others' empathy, emotions and feelings. Two people are already dead.

The leader of this sect is already blocking me on every platform that even exists. If they say anything I screenshot it and I put it up for them and others to see. Easy as that. It's better if I talk about it, than to stay quiet about this. And I am not alone in this, never alone. This is not okay it seems like. They do NOT like this. Why? Because.. Now it's open and we have nowhere to run. Nowhere to hide. What can we do? Stay quiet. This is our triumph card.

They confess pretty easily to what they are doing. When people feel good about something and feel good about hurting someone else, they usually proudly represent it. Like it's some kind of prey that they are showing their masters. Look what I found!

Whatever they find. Just take that. Whatever they give, just take that. Take from them as well. It's not okay for them to just take from you. If they complain about it, just don't listen.

What they do, you can also do. Okay. You can be and act and do exactly like them. Except do not be like them completely. They are hurt and therefore they are hurting you. These people do not feel well inside. This is a proud moment in their life. What better if not to show it to the world. We do NOT want that. They do not want others to find out. It puts them in a not so good position.

They feel good about it, therefore it comes out. Like bursting a bubble that is about to burst. Like when you are a child and you hide it from your mother that you clearly did not do something but then after a while it comes out even though.

ZeroYami

I don't plan on anything, but as I've told you before: leave me alone and don't bother sending me any of your nonsensical messages. Find someone else to harass.

You're being blocked now, and if I receive more of your messages another report will follow.

Yami is a terribly good example when it comes to this.

"Leave me alone" is a sign of stepping past a border. You have crossed my border and now I am getting defensive. Which shows now when I start blocking you. Because I know that you can screenshot everything. And that is not good for me.

"Don't bother sending me any of your nonsensical messages"

Who even uses "Nonsensical messages"? It has to sound amazing, marvelous and imperfect. Typical rich man's word. When did you learn these amazing words? When did you even take the time for it?

Next part. "Find someone else to harass." Now I am too far stepping over his border line. What does he mean by harass? Let's google harrassment. They always have a way of turning everything away from them and onto another. And not taking responsibility. It's like pushing away from them. I never do anything wrong, and I am not at fault. Like a deflecting shield. Never saying sorry of course. It's all about not accepting it. Might I add. These people have contacts with the law enforcement. If not, let's cover it with money. I know. These people would buy themselves out of misery.

"Harassment covers a wide range of behaviors of an offensive nature. It is commonly understood as behavior that demeans, humiliates or embarrasses a person, and it is characteristically identified by its unlikelihood in terms of social and moral reasonableness. In the legal sense, these are behaviors that appear to be disturbing, upsetting or threatening. They evolve from discriminatory grounds, and have an effect of nullifying a person's rights or impairing a person from benefiting from their rights. When these behaviors become repetitive, they can also be defined as bullying. The continuity or repetitiveness and the aspect of distressing, alarming or threatening may distinguish it from insult."

Humiliate and Embarrasses a person. In that sense I am thinking like a person maybe coming in with a clown outfit. And the class is attacking him for just choosing this outfit. There is no big crowd that is humiliating him. There is no one humiliating him for having a different skin color. No one is attacking him in a crowd. Like what? He is the leader of a sect. If he can't take feedback from the members in the sect or from other people.

-> He is very good at the pity me game and he uses this all the time. He uses his skin color as well as a pity me game. I cannot take this away from him. If he weren't, let's use labels here "Black". We must think that regular people need to be able to read this and understand. This is something that he uses. If he weren't a different skin color he wouldn't be able to use this. If he weren't a "Man" for an example. Use everything and anything. He wouldn't be able to use this for his advantage.

-> This is like a prey that he would proudly show up. This is something that he would feel proud to confess about.

"Demeans. To lower in status or character. Degrade or Humble." I did a google search for this. Okay. He is a leader of a sect. How am I even capable of anything like this? It's not like I am the leader of this sect. He is the leader of this sect. Tell me in any way is this possible?

I quote from the sect page and the facebook page that he created

"However, some older meanings of 'virtual' still find echoes in modern usage. One of these is the connection between the virtual and the 'liminal' in an anthropological sense, where the liminal is a borderline or threshold between different states such as the carnivals or coming of age rituals held in traditional societies. Such rituals are usually marked by a period in which the normal social order is suspended for the subject who is passing from one status or position to another."

Let's get back to this sect page and what he has written here.

“Such rituals are usually marked by a period in which the normal social order is suspended for the subject who is passing from one status or position to another”

Which means in this case. Some will have a lower status and some will have a higher status in this new society sect or sect. As long as they know how to be mean, talk bad and push other people down they are considered worthy. As long as they can push other people into suicide they are worthy. As long as they are willing to kill their friends, they are worthy. As long as they show obedience they are worthy. As long as they are loyal they are worthy. As long as they know how to act and be an actor they are worthy. As long as they go along with everything they are worthy. This means that people like me will be killed, have a lower status and a worse life. Did I agree to this? No. Did I know about this movie thing? No. Did I agree to these sect rules? No. This is according to this sect. It does actually not mean anything if you follow their rules or do not follow their rules. If you follow their rules you will get hurt. If you don't follow their rules you will get hurt. It is as simple as that. Let's get back to this “To lower in status and character. Degrade or Humble.”

A sect leader is telling me that I am lowering his status and his character and degrading him? He is a sect leader. He is the top of the top. How can I lower his status and his character? When he created this sect, this movie and everything? When he is lowering other people's statuses and creating this new world society sect? Here is him pushing this onto me as well. This is not surprising for me. His status CANNOT be lowered. He is a sect leader. He put himself into this situation, how does he even think it's possible to lower his status? In so many ways this is not ever possible.

Disturbing, Upsetting or Threatening. The only thing I have ever done is speak to him in a normal way and asked about the people that have died. Because two people cannot just die without a reason. That just seems not possible. So when I talked to one of the people in the sect about it. He said that I had to talk to Yami about it. So the only one who would give me an answer about it would be Yami then. I asked him, but he did not give me any answer. Instead I got blocked from his discord channel.

Next time I tried talking to him about this. And showing him evidence and proof of things and asking him to read about the psychosis I have been going through or anything at all that I had written. He told me I was harassing him. Not did I speak in a bad manner or called him names or being impolite. Nothing like that at all. Later I got reported. And two of my accounts got banned and erased. That made me question. What did he actually do in Scions of Fate?

I quote

“MGame CORP also tried to take action with NetGame to shut down the server, if Hideki didn't shut it down.

If Hideki never shut it down, he would've went to court with MGame CORP and NetGame CORP. Both companies would interact to win the case and Hideki would've spent his time in prison...Further cases would be issued if Hideki opened up the server again. And legal actions would be taken by MGame CORP and NetGame CORP. MGame CORP has sued many Korean/Japanese Private Servers of this game, while NetGame CORP has taken action to the English PS. The reason why Chinese PS are still out there is because 17Game doesn't take action if there is a Chinese PS."

This was in 2008. "Blame patrat + netgame xP"

Why this happened or the reason behind this. I don't know anything about it.

I have no idea what happened inside of this private server. I'm not sure this is the private server that I got an account for to try out. The video that he has posted up on youtube though. It's so much hatred. So much negativity. Like in your teenage years when everything feels totally black and dark and negative and upside down. Usually in your teenage years you are usually in this state. Or if you are listening to very negative music or watching very negative things or if you are around people that are very negative. I don't feel like I am being threatening. It's the difference between being talked to and being stalked or being violent. The truth can though be very threatening to a person that don't like the truth or doesn't want others to see beneath oneself.

"Repetitive and can also be defined as bullying."

So talking to a person is called repetitive? I believe it is. Yea, must be right there.

Are we all harassing each other? For just talking to one another? This can be used in many different ways it seems.

Defined as bullying? One person against a whole sect that is after to kill me? I don't think this is actually called bullying. Bullying is when a group of people is attacking one person. Like a sect attacking one member. Here I am by the way. A member of a sect without knowing. I am so flattered to actually never been asked to actually join this. The person that you are calling fox, should pole dance, do you role play in the bedroom?, that is a hacker, needy, jealous woman, that compares themselves to others, Angel, do you take drugs?, forget about Darky, Nuub, I don't care about your mother, you hate me, Someone is salty, find help..

This is bullying though. A group of people that are attacking one person. THAT is bullying. I am ONE PERSON. But that doesn't mean that I am alone. I can never ever ever be alone. I am never alone. I am in contact with the other side. People that have passed away. Started when I was little. How can I ever be alone? I will never be alone. When you come to this state from the teenage years up here. That is when you change. When you realize that you are not alone and never alone. I am still not alone. Even though it seems like I am alone at this moment. There are still a lot of people not knowing about any movie being created and made. There are still a lot of people not knowing about Bart. Do you believe I am alone? I have my family, my friends and the other side. The reason why I am going or are here by myself. Like any other person I have people I want to protect, people that I care about and people that I love. I do not wish to involve them in something. And possibly get hurt in the process. I know what I experienced and I don't want others to experience that too. But they choose themselves if they want to interfere or not or if they want to stand by me or not. But I don't wish for them to get brain damage/brain injury or get into a psychosis. Even my friend's son has ADHD.

I feel like I have the right to get the information out and to actually make other people aware of the situation. I feel like I have the right to state my opinion and a right to speak my mind and a right to write.

"You're being blocked now. And if I see more messages from you another report will follow."

This is a state of boundary. That if I block you. You cannot talk to me anymore and I do not speak to you anymore and you cannot speak to me anymore. In this way he becomes silent and quiet.

The quiet and silent game again. This is a good thing to do. Since he doesn't want anymore to come out and he knows that I will screenshot and put it up even more then. And as I stated before, this is something that they do not want. In this way they can be ignorant about everything. Like something like this never happened. Say a lot of mean words. Come up with downgrading words. Tell more lies. Unless they want to proudly show it up. They also will go "Forget about it". You are "Paranoid". The easiest ones to use and the most common ones they use. I have noticed this alot and I keep noticing it alot. Anything downgrading or mean, negative or a way to not think about it. The most common.

If you look at this line here. You're being blocked here. I'm proud to now be able to block you away cause I know that if I do that you won't be able to screenshot any more from me. And any information that you are trying to get, you have no way of getting that information.

If I see more messages from you another report will follow. You see how proudly he is presenting and showing it up to me? He is proud that he accomplished it. That he reported me and that they went after me. Why is he telling me?

-> Because he is proudly presenting and showing it to me.

It's kinda like winning a score, you know when you throw a ball in and it goes in. Kinda like that. And then you just feel like you have to brag about how awesome you are. And you go to your friend and you brag about it. And brag about it even more like a rumor. This is the feeling I am getting. Usually he confesses like this.

Hurt people, Hurt people.

These people do not feel well inside.

Don't put yourself on their level.

These people enjoy copying others. But as I said before that doesn't mean that you can copy them. They may say that they do not like people copying them or anything like this. Ignore this. The way that they are copying others does not make them holy. I honestly don't know how they have the time... How do you all have the time?
