Further study on Luke

1. What evidence would you point to in the gospel of Luke that would indicate he was a physician?

2. How can you tell the writer of Luke's gospel was a historian?

3. What details about Jesus' birth and early life do you find particularly significant? Whay?

4. How does Jesus particularly demonstrate compassion in the gospel of Luke?

5. In what ways did Luke note and acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit throughout his gospel?

6. What aspects of Luke's resurrection account make it clear that he recognized the historical importance of the events he was recording?