

Antoine Johnson, CEO and Principal Consultant at the Johnson TOD Group LLC, is a results-oriented Organization Development professional with broad industry experience in Organization Effectiveness, Talent Management, Leadership and Workforce Development, and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Consulting and Executive Coaching.

For over 20 years Antoine has been a member of National Training Laboratories for Applied Behavioral Sciences (NTL) a global non-profit whose mission is to advance Applied Behavioral Science (ABS) in the service of social justice, oppression-free societies, and healthy individuals, groups, and organizations in the world for over 75 years. He has served in many capacities such as Interim President, Board Member, Core Lab Steering Committee Member and Trainer in several NTL Labs. In response to the tragic racial events of Spring 2020, Antoine led a Call to Action for Racial Injustice in NTL Institute, developing five unique workshops to address these issues.

Antoine's natural gift for compassionate empathy helps him to navigate differences, build connections with people, and create psychologically safe environments to help explore differences and belonging. Antoine holds an Executive Certificate in Strategic Diversity and Inclusion Management from Georgetown University, an MS in Organization Development from the American University/NTL Program, BS in Management from St. John's University, and Coaching Certification from The Executive Coaching Academy. He is certified in Gestalt Organization & Systems Development, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), Denison Cultural Survey, Hogan Assessments, and DDI Facilitator, among others.

Antoine lives with his wife and sons in Acworth, Georgia where he enjoys spending time with his family, coaching and mentoring youth as a Scoutmaster with The Boy Scouts of America and a member of 100 Black Men.
