

Iowa DNR hosts disease update, discusses Chronic Wasting Disease impacts August 10, 2024

KTVO on MSN

... Since the first case in 2013, there have been 389 cases in Iowa, with 128 cases identified in 2023 alone..,

Iowa DNR to host virtual public meeting on chronic wasting disease November 19, 2024 Iowa DNR News

... As of Nov. 19, a total of 397 wild deer have tested positive for chronic wasting disease in 25 Iowa counties. “Chronic wasting disease will be a generational challenge,” said Dr. Rachel Ruden, state wildlife veterinarian with the Iowa DNR... To register ..,

DNR anticipates ‘significant rise’ in fatal deer disease as hunting season begins

December 7, 2024 Iowa, The Gazette

... Chronic wasting disease, a “uniformly fatal” and highly contagious disease ... During the 2023-24 surveillance season ... the DNR recorded 128 positive cases, up from 96 the previous season, and 52 the season before that. The disease also has spread to new counties. In 2023-24 it was confirmed in eight more counties than it had been found in during the 2022-23 surveillance season ..,

Iowa Deer Hunters’ Focus Shifts to Late-Season Muzzleloader And Population

Management December 26, 2024, CBC Online 1380 KCIM

... Early data from hunters suggests hemorrhagic disease, also known as EHD, significantly impacted deer populations in Iowa, with deaths reported in 94 counties. Meanwhile, the Iowa DNR has collected over 5,000 deer samples for chronic wasting disease, with 26 positive cases reported, including in three new counties, Davis, Shelby, and Wapello..,