Helping Public Safety Professionals Reach Their Highest Potential

Succeeding in the Assessment Center:

Developing Leadership and Supervisory Skills for Promotion

Broward College Institute for Public Safety

Tim Gillette and Associates proudly present our widely acclaimed training program entitled "Succeeding in the Assessment Center: Developing Leadership and Supervisory Skills for Promotion." For the past 30 years, this intensive program has consistently produced the top-scoring candidates in their Assessment Center process. In this workshop, students will learn how to:

- Demonstrate the behavioral dimensions that will be evaluated in the process
- Provide thorough responses to the problem scenarios presented in the process
- Prepare for and effectively conduct each exercise presented in the process
- Perform at their best and achieve maximum points

Instructor Background

Colonel Tim Gillette (Ret.) competed in four promotional processes each time having been rated as one of the top candidates. During his career, he was a nationally certified assessor and designed Assessment Center Exercises for his agency. For the past 30 years, he has shared his strategies with promotional candidates throughout the country in helping them excel in their promotional process. He has Doctoral degrees in Organizational Leadership and Higher Education Leadership, a Master/Science degree in Public Administration, and a Bachelor/Science degree in Journalism. He is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute and the Senior Management Institute for Police. He has been published through the U.S. Department of Justice and the International City and County Managers Association.
