

This F.V. is for a company whose welcome email for their newsletter is very very vague:

“Greetings, thank you for visiting us. If you need information about any of the courses, let us know. We can give you access to the complete course at the FxGlobe client price.”

SL: The beginning of the adventure

Hi ()!

Welcome to our stock and cryptocurrency market newsletter. We have many experiences, moments and WINS ahead together.

You signed up to stay updated on market news and information, but that's just the tip of the iceberg of what you can find in our emails.

You'll get a complete and condensed summary of each of our trading programs. If you missed it, don't worry - in a matter of minutes, you'll have the essentials, information, and knowledge we share in the programs that you really need if you're looking for success in trading. Although watching it live always adds something special.

But wait, that's not all! If you have any type of question don't hesitate to contact us, you can ask anything you want. And we usually respond pretty quickly, so you can go to bed knowing that your question will be answered by the time you wake up.

And as you're now part of this great community, we have a gift for you. Stay tuned for the next email if you don't want to miss it ;). The gift is a discount code active for 48-72h to encourage you to make your first purchase*.*

Signature (it's always good to have a signature that characterizes you, the same in each email)
