Hi {firstname},

This is it — the final call before Diggy Miner AI one time offer officially closes.

Most people see Diggy as a scraper. But smart marketers know the bigger picture:

👉 With Diggy Miner, you can run your own scraping service.

Businesses are already paying $$ for what Diggy does in minutes:

1. Pulling local leads from Maps & LinkedIn
2. Tracking competitor prices on Shopify, Amazon & eBay
3. Collecting reviews & sentiment reports from Trustpilot, Yelp & G2
4. Scraping Airbnb, Etsy & niche blogs your competitors ignore
5. Delivering emails, phones & profiles no one else can reach

💡 With Diggy Miner, you're not just a user — you're the provider.

And unlike the old-school fragile scripts required system, Diggy doesn't break when sites update.

It just works — across Chrome, Edge, Brave & more.

 But here's the catch: Our one-time launch offer ends tonight.

Tomorrow, new doors open — and so does the pricing change. It goes back to recurring monthly fees.

 Grab Diggy Miner now, while you can still lock in the prelaunch deal:
