Icey, while in his 20s, engaged with 3 minors (who were 8-10 years younger than him) privately in a discord server as close friends. There were no other adults in this server. In this server, there was a channel dedicated to sharing NSFW content. This channel was specifically for sharing sexual content, and not NSFW jokes. Icey shared NSFW content by linking reblogs from his NSFW tumblr. Not only was he sharing porn that he finds arousing with children, he encouraged them to share porn they found arousing. Below is a statement from one of these minors about Icey and his sharing of NSFW with them:

i recall a point where he tried to justify being suggestive and nsfw with us as "encouraging us to explore ourselves" or some shit like that

The NSFW channel was not the only situation where Icey engaged with these three minors regarding sexual content. He also streamed E621 porn to them on a discord call. Below is a message where a minor is explaining to Icey how his sexual behaviors made them uncomfortable alongside other actions:

Icey also posted NSFW content on his main tumblr, which would then be interacted with by these minors.

Below are examples of this. All of the following posts were reblogged by a 13-14 year old that he considered his "favorite person" when Icey was 22-23 years old.

- NSFW art of Icey's fursona masturbating:

- NSFW fanart for a series called SparkleCare Hospital, created by a minor (at the time) who Icey became friends with:

- A link to NSFW artwork of Tails (8 years old) from Sonic The Hedgehog

- Artwork of a 17 year old's fursona with a prominent outline of their penis

Icey also submitted an image with porn, because of the porn, to a minor's blog:

One of the minors, now an adult, is still friends with Icey. Now that they are over 18, Icey allowed them onto his NSFW account and expressed desire to have sex with them when they were 19 and Icey was 28. Icey has known and shared sexual content with them since they were TWELVE.
