My heart is in this radio
Yea yo brain is like an innerscope

Can I say that you know things
Can we forget about this whole thing

I wouldn't mind to, pay my dues since they all due Tryna hold my shit together and do what I love to

Let's get away love,
What you afraid of?
All your demons need to burn up

You gotta stop holding back your real love from me in this living room

Living Room Vibes
Woah-0h

The Shepard and his lies I'm so mad at you, baby so mad at you

Living room vibe

Manipulate your mind even tho
I don't have to

And this house is not a home

Your chakras I wanna see you Feel in the way I do when I'm

I believe you every time I see
You I'm there for you cuz I care
For you and I love you
But you be acting crazy
How do I handle somebody Angry

We shouldn't have to fight bout
Nothing the fuss bout nothing
The fuck going on
