

Alien hybrids are the most discussed part of the UFO phenomena in regards to what these beings's goals are in creating such life forms. The way these beings forcefully take genetic material in the form of eggs and semen and other bodily fluids while emotionally manipulating people into thinking it is for a greater goal has always been a red flag to many people including myself, this includes the way these hybrids themselves are treated and how these aliens imply that they are the 'better versions' of humans who act more submissive and do whatever these beings want from them due to the fact that they are constantly watching these hybrids and have a hold over them.

However, there is also another side to the hybrid agenda that is also of great concern and should be discussed more in depth in regards to humanity's future. That side being the hybridization/manipulation of the astral soul that we have.

The hybridization of the astral or counterfeit spirit inside of us isn't something that is talked about a lot compared to the birthing of physical hybrids but it has been shown that these aliens can manipulate the very (astral) soul of a person using technology and deception to get their way.

In many NDE and OBE accounts, it is reported time and time again that the person's very essence can be changed into a more 'divine' and 'loving' form but when you look closely at these cases it actually reveals that these scenarios are heavily controlled and have a very specific agenda geared towards brainwashing people into reincarnation and new age philosophies that center on "love and light", "karma and lessons", etc. Not to mention, the fact that the blinding love-bomb energy is still present within these people during these 'transformations' is very telling that this is a manufactured scenario to brainwash and essentially lobotomize them if we're being brutally honest. By manipulating the form of the astral soul with the use of technology and manipulating the person's emotions and thoughts via the love drug sedation and hypnotic energies present in these alien made simulations, they are able to control the narrative about what actually happens in the afterlife.

https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1paul_probable_nde.html

"I was being drawn into that aisle towards the bright sphere of light that was to their far side. This sphere of light was intense, maybe four times the height of the beings, it was beaming out in every which way... This was all extremely vivid and sharp, hyper-acute in my senses. All of the sounds, sights, and feelings, everything was hyper-intensified. Beyond the beings was the great white light, which was very bright but it didn't hurt my eyes. I was completely filled with peace, and like a spiritual chorus of joy, much deeper and broader than euphoria. My inner being was an enormous producer of power, from deep within me, from the deepest heart of my inner being was an immeasurable love and purity; I became a very source-generator of gushing purity and truth. This is the only power that is truth. Within me was an incredible replenishing of the power of goodness, expanding and flowing out...

This power had a sense of warm liquid, bright pure light, calm and radiant but extremely immense, and intense, energy. It grew to be as large as the sky and ever bounding from within me. My inside grew outward. It was the only true power that I have ever felt. Everything else is a lie. It was like my inside was generating an incredible amount of love, peace, and light, and it was gushing and pushing out in all directions. Like the sun glowing and burning outward from within me, As if more than all of the electricity that has ever been is flowing out from deep within you. But it is a calm power, beaming out linearly, in every direction. Within me was a never quenching and ever growing sphere of pure love. It is truly unbound. It was so powerful... It was like I was on a slow moving conveyor belt and gradually moving closer-in through the beings dressed in white gowns. I was seeing this motif of the cloud, the beings, and the intense white light behind it, framed in the darkness of outer space, from the initial distance of about fifty feet..."

<https://research.iands.org/2024-11-23-16-15-26/nde-research/nde-archives31/newest-accounts/1386-teen-wishes-for-death-but-is-shown-who-she-really-is.html>

"That night I had a dream that would change my life forever. In this dream I went through many phases of healing, including forgiveness, love, gratitude and surrender, before eventually spinning off the ground and levitating slowly into the sky. There was a crowd of friends, family, and people I barely even knew all trying desperately to pull me back to the ground. As I floated up, I had a sense of peace wash throughout my entire body. I knew that I was dying but I was okay with it, I felt like I was returning home and that a huge weight had been lifted.

I asked for everyone to let me go. I wasn't afraid of dying anymore. I then shot up into the most pure, white, loving, light that held me in a cocoon of radiant love and bliss that I will never be able to explain with words. In that moment, I knew who I/we are beyond this physical experience. I felt the eternalness of my nature. The perfection of source. The perfection of all life. Every experience that had led me to that point flashed through my inner sight like a movie that beautifully illustrated how every experience had perfectly led me to this moment.

I experienced the perfection of my sickness, of my physical experience, the perfection of everything in my life that had led me to that moment, I felt a deep connection with ALL, with consciousness itself and this feeling of oneness was so Divinely beautiful that I couldn't feel anything but the truth of my divine essence. I had been gifted with a remembrance of my true nature, and this was the gift I had needed to heal. My soul then asked to return to Earth, without words - there was a deep yearning to share this love I had experienced with the world".

<https://research.iands.org/ndes/nde-stories/nde-like-accounts/1118-expanding-orb-of-joyful-consciousness.html>

"I was a Light just like Peter. I was following behind him, not on legs, however, as I had no human body. I was more like a Living Light-filled Expanding Orb of Consciousness, for lack of better words, and all of me was totally sobbing with joy! And I mean, soul-deep sobbing over and over again exclaiming, "It's so Good to be Home again!" and nothing had ever felt better, truer, and more Real. Freed from the earth, and finally, Home Again! YES!!!

We were moving in what felt like a diagonal slant upward direction. I saw nothing and no one else. And the further we proceeded, the larger I kept expanding, all the while filling up even further with a joy that was truly indescribable and so intense! Incredibly, in just seconds, it felt as though I had swelled to hundreds of miles in every direction! (Could there be too much of a “good thing” because I was losing control?) I was trying to now “hold on” to my (already way the heck out there) boundaries.

I was like a gigantic balloon and my fingertips (that did not exist, though I was trying to use some form of that thought) were stretched to the max and now failing in their effort to contain the now-impending explosion of nuclear joy! Yikes!? And as strange or humorously stupid as this may sound, I was suddenly afraid of “blowing up”! OK, sure, with Joy Beyond Comprehension, but still, I’m feeling like this balloon is going to burst and Pop! goes the ME-zel. I stop. (Apparently fear acts like a brake, even there.)...

Now is that hysterical or what? But I really was occupied with the whole “holding on” to some kind of boundary idea, and I feel apologetic (as your brother) that I wimped out at the last moment, a hair’s breadth from certain changes to my ego that I sensed might render me void of any chance of retaining a relevant first and last name, leaving me likely speechless and more likely, me-less. But Peter knew where I was at before I did, and then warmly confided to me “Just wanted to show you, so you know.”

Combining this information with the fact that these aliens can readily take human souls out of the body and put them in non-human bodies during abductions and it starts to really show us that these EDs (Extra-Dimensionals) are able to manipulate the makeup of our souls to their liking and personal agendas.

https://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/vida_alien/alien_adrian.htm

“Well, the boy came here in 1960 and in 1965 was when the approach and the soul transfer occurred. Let’s talk about that a little bit. The boy’s physical body was very poor... He [I] was throwing a ball in the air when he [I] saw a V-shaped phalanx of ships coming across the sky. The lead ship began to glow very brightly and descend. He [I] thought it was a plane crashing so the boy ran towards his bike, and before he could make it, he was taken up in the ship. Inside the craft was when the boy first saw Adrain. He is from a planet called Romel in the Alcyone star system, some 950 years in our linear future. The boy was placed in a glass case and his soul essence was removed and healed, where it was incarnated in a much more positive environment. Then Adrain laid down in a second glass case. There was a device that looked like a large white box, like a refrigerator, with glowing tubes coming out of the glass cases into and out of the white box. Adrain transferred maybe 10 or 20% of his mind and soul into this body, so that he could exist simultaneously in the future and in this time-line. Like an archeologist or anthropologist that has found a way to travel in time and not disrupt the structure of the time he is studying.

When I got up out of the glass case on the ship, and I saw this huge blonde being, it was like looking in a mirror. Like looking back at myself”...

Sean: What happened to the physical soul of the... I'm not sure what his original name was, but the original soul of the other body. The small boy you once were.

Adrain: They told me they took him to South America to reincarnate, in a family, which was very interestingly, a family with money, and they are into metaphysical things. So, he is much better. The deal was pretty good for him. Good for him, for us, for everybody. Because he was not going to make it, he was dying, and emotionally he wasn't well with that fanatical family. They were driving him crazy, you know. I was going crazy there. There were times I would come from school, and I'd see priests there, I'd see psychiatrists in the house. Because they thought that the devil was in me. That's what they were saying”.

<https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonPlanet/s/TJfeQZN1II>

4 - Room with two vertical cylinders, composed of different materials. In the first cylinder, smaller and more transparent, a specimen of an alien species was placed. While in the second cylinder, thicker and composed of non-transparent materials. Black in color and metallic appearance, is introduced, through a lateral opening, an abductee (in original version). This last large cylinder appears to be enveloped in white fumes or vapors, reminiscent of the liquid helium cooling procedure. The abductee once introduced into the opaque cylinder. You begin to feel strong pressure on your solar plexus, concomitant with a strong sensation of vibration throughout the body, which it also comes from the solar plexus. This is an effect due to the rapid rotation of the walls of the metal cylinder, which increases in speed over time, until reaching the maximum. The abductees remember that the machinery produces a loud noise. The correct speed (frequency) has been reached. The Soul of the abductee detaches itself and is directed towards the other cylinder.

(SNIP)

At the end of the operation, which also lasts very little, the Soul returns to the abductee, where the cylinder in which it is deposited stops rotating slowly. Hence, the abductee is extracted in a state of extreme confusion and fatigue”.

“LINDA PORTER: "I was shown at some time a room with very tall, clear tube-like containers or cylinders on a raised platform which seemed to be at the center of the room. Inside these tubes - standing upright, naked, and appearing to be asleep - were humans, or at least they looked human to me. They looked like they were in some kind of suspended animation. "I don't think they were dead because their color was too good. They were floating in what appeared to be a purple gas. It was very thick and hard to see through, but it swirled around so much that you could see the people as it moved. I was never told anything, at least that I remember.

"I do not remember the mechanics of how this was done, but his soul was then lifted up out of his dying body! It left the body in the area of the solar plexus (behind stomach organ). It was about two and one-half feet long, five inches wide and was a breathtakingly beautiful, soft, iridescent yellow with a white, glowing inner core that radiated a very gentle heat. There was a pastel orange layer around the yellow.

"The soul floated across the room to another body that looked like the man would have appeared at about twenty-five years of age. The new body appeared empty. I don't know any other way to describe it - like an empty container. The 'old body' was now bluish in color and obviously dead.

(SNIP)

"After the dissection, I was told that the body would be discarded. They seemed very surprised that I was upset that the body was just going to be tossed overboard! They told me it was just a container for the soul and of no other value.

(SNIP)

Linda Porter said she was taken by a "grey scientist" to a room where three people were in tubes. She felt the people were alive, but in a state of suspended animation and that the man on far right was a younger clone activated by a "soul transfer" from his previous older body".

<https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonPlanet/s/P37OU1aXSH>

"She was told, 'If you don't cooperate, we'll replace you with this and nobody will know the difference.' When Ted was a teenage, he and a number of other teenagers were abducted together and shown copies of their bodies. In this instance, too, the clones were used as threats."

(snip)

"Ted recalled a process whereby his original body was killed. They first gave him a glowing, green, fiery substance to drink. It made him extremely nauseated. He vomited it immediately, and then they cut off his head [and his vital fluid was drained from his body into a container]. When his soul energy - or whatever you want to call it - came up out of his body, it remained attached to the body at this lumpy, glowing, green liquid area. It appeared to be unable to get free of that.

They sucked it into a little black box, which was set on a counter while the aliens readied his new cloned body. Then they put probes into the shoulders, neck and feet of the new body to activate it. Once it began to breathe, the soul energy could be put into it.

His soul energy, which had been stored in the little black box ever since they killed his first body, was introduced into the new body, and because the body was breathing, it was trapped there."

Some of you might now be wondering, "How can the astral soul be changed on a genetic level? Isn't it incorporeal?" While the astral self is a metaphysical component of a person's being, it still does contain genetic material that allows for easier and more flexible manipulation by these EDs than if it were a physical body. Think of the astral body as a body of clay that can be shaped, molded and altered to become whatever tool is required for these beings at any given time.

https://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/vida_alien/esp_vida_alien_18d.htm

"As a physical framework, Griffith speaks of "astral matter" that has an atomic and subatomic particle structure resembling that of physical matter, but possessing much less mass than the physical counterpart. Although the mass ratios among the various astral subatomic particles is the same as that of the physical ones, all have much less absolute mass than physical electrons.

Astral subatomic particles have gravitational properties that resemble but do not interact with the gravitation of physical particles. Likewise there is astral energy that does not interact with physical systems.

There is however one very important exception to this general lack of interaction, and this actually is the basis of "the secret of life":

Astral matter forms complex organic molecules just as physical matter does, and their respective chemical bonds have similar energy levels and photon frequencies associated with them.

This allows for resonance and chemical bonding between physical and astral matter. It is the combined molecular system that exhibits the basic characteristics of "life", such as irritability and the ability to reproduce.

This is how astral matter and the soul, which is constructed of astral matter, become involved in the reduplication of DNA and many aspects of cell metabolism...

The bonding provides a pathway by which some of the cell's metabolic energy can be converted into astral energy that feeds the soul, powering its various functions, and providing for regeneration of its astral matter, which is then used to perform cellular growth and repairs...

The soul spoken of here is a primitive analog of the physical body. It is alive, but it is not sentient. It has a nervous system but not a mind. Griffith calls this the somatic soul. The "true" soul is the astral soul.

The astral soul is a body of astral matter linked to the somatic soul's nervous system by the famous silver cord. This is structured like a segment of plant root with feeder roots at both ends, tapping into the two souls' nervous systems.

Energy flowing from the body into the somatic soul and through the silver cord to the astral soul is the astral soul's only truly efficient source of nourishment".

<https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonPlanet/s/pCA4rli7ml>

“An Astral body is not quite what you would call a pure spirit. On Earth, there is a belief that the spirit is made of nothing. This is false. The Astral body is composed of billions of electrons, exactly mirroring your physical shape. Each of these electrons has a ‘memory’ and each is capable of retaining as much information as is contained in all the books that fill the shelves of an average town library...

Your Astral body transmits and receives messages, by means of these electrons, through the channel of your brain, to, and from your Higher-self. Information is being transmitted without you being aware of it, thanks to a weak electric current from your brain in harmony with your electrons”.

https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonPlanet/comments/1gywjbj/ever_wondered_how_souls_attach_themselves_to_the/

“He had obtained from other abductees the information that the Soul was connected to the DNA in a certain way and the medium was a certain vibrational frequency... in a certain sense it was like tuning into a radio station.

Whatever was holding that light in place, it did not need the DNA molecule at all. It was something else. Something invisible. Something powerful enough to store and control visible light within the shape of the DNA molecule itself... as if DNA has an energetic “duplicate”... Some force, perhaps akin to gravity, is holding the photons in place”.

The time where these astral bodies get genetically manipulated it seems is around birth when the astral soul is the most vulnerable to alterations due to it changing into the form of that current physical human host body to accommodate itself with what that body has to live through during that time and when that body dies, their memory is erased via the mind wipe and the process of symbiosis happens over and over again for each physical body this false spirit inhabits.

<https://youtu.be/j0sncN1ycEU?si=0QzqLcZOAdzTSaCz>

Nathaniel Gillis, a researcher of paranormal phenomena who is also a demonologist, goes into detail in this interview about multiple possession cases where the victims would also become pregnant afterwards. This helps explain why some of these beings seem so intent on doing possessions and channelings so much and inhabiting the human body.

https://www.reddit.com/r/Shamanism/comments/1hj14pf/what_does_it_mean_when_you_get_possessed_by_a/

“I don't even know why I was prompted for so long. I had no idea why I wanted to use my body to channel spirits during rituals and I didn't know what I would expect. I just know that the spirits have been prompted me to do these different things”.

These EDs are able to possess our bodies so they can create the perfect 'gardens' for growing and producing spiritual hybrids while also messing with our astral bodies as well. It's a two way process of getting us to trust them enough to let them inside of us but secretly planting the seeds to create an entrance way for brand new astral hybrids to appear.

This also explains why aliens seem to slightly lean towards eugenics based ideas when it comes to humanity as is implied throughout UFO literature, they want certain humans to be incubators for these spliced hybrid children to help create more of these future agents. It seems that without the proper "seeds" being planted in the human host body, these astral and even physical hybrids cannot be born due to the conflicting energies of human and alien astral genetics:

<https://evelorgen.com/wp/articles/spiritual-warfare-and-the-human-soul/alien-hierarchies-and-the-research-of-dr-corrado-malanga-an-interview-with-dr-malanga-through-dorica-manu/>

"This is after the cloning process whereby abductees described a light within a vertical metallic cylinder, vibrating extremely fast. This causes the dot matrix consciousness or "soul matrix" of the person to be ejected out of the body and directed into the next transparent cylinder. The original body is still in the first cylinder while the consciousness is put into a new body. Sometimes this was an alien body, but the Soul vibration can not accept the alien DNA frequency for extended periods of time and usually reject its containment. The Soul can be put into the cloned body, and then back into the original"

This finally brings us to why they are creating these specific forms of hybrids in the first place that fit into alien bodies. Aliens hybridize human astral souls and put them in other alien bodies because they want to create super soldiers. These hybrids know of the human experience and have been taught that humanity needs "help" or that it needs to be "taught a lesson" thanks to New age, Religious, and other circles that these beings' have penetrated. These astral souls provide sustenance to these EDs as well due to the loosh they give off since they have emotions that generate energy unlike some of these entities. They want these hybrids to be wardens of the human race when the time comes, they want them to be the foot soldiers on the ground 'taking care of business' against anyone who goes against their rule. In some apocalyptic alien visions, it has been shown or implied that the hybrid humans will actually come down to Earth after a great reset type event and 'help' humanity rebuild itself.

<https://hybridsrising.com/Hybrid-Project/Hybrids-Rising-Hybrids-New-Race-of-Children-HP.html>

Some of the information we have learned from the designers or creators of The Hybrid Programme is that humanity will one day be introduced to their Hybrid offspring – their Hybrid Children. Whether we understand their true purpose or not, it does seem that we will eventually meet them, unless this is another Extraterrestrial ploy much like their warnings of an impending cataclysm on Earth. (Those, thankfully, have not panned out during our lifetimes and hopefully they never will.) Connecting with the Hybrid Children may occur during the Disclosure process or it could be the result of another completely different event that will allow them to come here in an overt fashion.

There are many who perhaps correctly say that Disclosure will never happen because of the overall mentality of current Humans, and that may indeed be true. If so, this meeting between the Hybrid children and their parents will occur elsewhere or when the Humans who are unable to adapt to the Hybrid Extraterrestrial presence are no longer on Earth. In any case, the Hybrid children and their parent Abductee-Experiencers will be both the channel and the connection that links Humans with Advanced Intelligences. Simply consider these few references regarding this pivotal upcoming event:

“... Angie was shown a ‘clone’ infant as well as nine hybrid tots and was told they would be used ‘to prepare [humans] for the changes.’” [15]

I was told telepathically that we have to... “Foster the alien children, for they shall be revealed.” [16]

“Our fifth-dimensional world is going to merge and co-exist with your fourth-dimensional world... The hybrid children are all part of the merging process.” [17]

“For a long time, I had dreams about seeing dead people, and sometimes these dead people would transform into the little Greys and this always shocked me. I have tried to understand what this means and whenever I concentrate on this dream I get the same answer. In German it is Vereinigung der Reiche which translates as ‘a connection or union between the dimensions.’” [18].

<https://hybridsrising.com/Articles/Hybrids-Rising-ICAR1-Interview-Art.html>

“So, something had to have changed with the Greys for them to need the Contactees to go around and do this. So, we are assuming that whatever other race is involved must have decided in a ‘moment’ to re-colonize the planet... It’s almost like the aliens knew this was coming and this was planned. They left these other groups behind so that there would be someone there to protect the Contactees to get them back... I think they are breeding us toward that way – whether it’s our generation, or the next generation or even the generation following that one – one of these generations is being bred specifically for this. They are moving us in that direction... What I have found interesting about this, is it only appears to be a select group that gets activated – not all Abductees or Contactees that get picked up are actually activated. As a matter of fact; if I understand it right and the way everybody talks about it, the ones that actually begin to die from it will not be taken aboard, they will be left here... the ones who are actually going around and finding Contactees – it’s going to be the Keepers who are working out there – it’s on the agenda, and they are going to be looking for Contactees left behind. They are going to be finding them and bringing them to secure zones so that they can be picked up. But, the people who are doing that, for some reason ET has elected not to take them with them. Only the Contactees who have been escorted will leave – the ones doing the escorting will be left behind, which is just a few thousand will be left...”

I no longer think that the hybrids will be used to produce more humanities across the universe, while I still know that they are going to try and harvest humanity and forcefully create more in other Earth-like planets when this one hits the doomsday clock, I now see the hybrids, both physical and astral, as future officers of an authoritarian regime. A regime that forces everyone to act the same and think the same under threat of death or other awful fates. It is evident to me that the hybrids are like a ticking time bomb, waiting unknowingly to be activated and do what their masters tell them to do. This new regime has been prophesied over and over again in alien encounters and ancient scriptures as I have already discussed before, the New World Order. An alien controlled world government that restricts who people can be or what they can do. By enforcing this regime through brainwashing propaganda, transhumanist promises and through using the primitive and divisive nature of the human mind, they will have complete control over humanity. In fact, I also think that this is where the other 'human aliens' in UFO cases come from.

They are us but from planets that had this dark regime masquerading as the light infecting their lives and brainwashed them into pro-reincarnation and herd-like thinking that makes them obedient to higher powers. I now view the eventual harvest of humanity as something even more complex than just mutilating humans into becoming greys. I now view it as an event where the astral hybrids are going to be the ones getting taken and used inside of alien bodies for sustenance and other uses. These EDs always say that "only a couple will be saved/chosen" but they're always vague about who exactly are the ones to get kidnapped but if we look closely at end of the world predictions in various corners of the paranormal world then it shows us that "Those with higher frequencies/intelligence" will be the ones saved, now let me ask you, who else has been described as "higher frequency" and "higher intelligence" from these aliens and humans? That's right, the hybrids or 'alien incarnates'.

Judging from communities like the Starseeds, Otherkin, Alterhuman, Contactees, etc who feel like they "don't belong here" I would say that there are most likely millions of these hybrids walking around right now all over the world. Think about it logically, there are 8 billion people on this planet, do you think that they would use just a small portion of humanity to get the job done? Especially considering how many people say they are aliens incarnated as humans, the truth is actually much more sinister than that. You see, when it comes to these "alien incarnates", while there are incarnates walking amongst us I'm not saying there isn't, the fact of the matter is that these people are being programmed to activate at a certain event in humanity's history.

This ties in with a post I made a while back about misanthropy being used against humanity, if you look very carefully at all these incarnates talk about humanity, a very big number of them who look down on humanity and shame it and scorn it while praising NHI and wishing they were with NHI. This is the programming that I'm talking about. I'm not the only one who's noticed this either as other researchers have also noticed this weaponized misanthropy:

<https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonPlanet/s/iCxKCMZtae>

"The abductees are force-fed lies and half-truths aimed at conditioning them into feeling disdain and contempt for their fellow humans. For example, the contactee may feel disgust for humanity's warlike and selfish nature, condemning it in favor of a new found love and worship for the spiritually advanced extraterrestrials. These peace-proclaiming contactees vehemently oppose anyone who challenges the extraterrestrial agenda, accusing 'revisionists' of being 'fear based.'"

"I have personally encountered abductees who fear speaking out in public about anything negative, or giving the aliens a bad image. In one case the abductee was being manipulated through deception, fear and even physical pain, to promote the extraterrestrial "space brother" propaganda through the Internet."

These astral hybrids are programmed to believe that these aliens are their "families", "loved ones", "friends" etc and with the help of false memory implantation this is most times a resounding success. By mixing the genetic makeup of the human host's astral form they feel like something is missing, that they don't belong and this naturally causes them to be lured into new age and spiritual circles that profess that they are alien incarnates which separates them more from their own humanity. They are weaponizing these hybrids who feel alone, due to what they did to them, to become pro-NHI regime supporters and anti-human zealots.

This also explains why some people also have sudden misanthropic thoughts as well like "these humans are so evil, I wish aliens would come and teach them a lesson". That's not them talking, that is essentially an implant that is a two way communication between NHI and humans. I personally have had these thoughts come to me but I instantly know that these aren't things I would say nor would I actually wish harm on anyone and I'm not a misanthrope so I have to astrally get rid of these etheric implants that they try to put in my mind to control my thoughts.

They don't just do implants either, they can just telepathically pretend to be these people's thoughts as well while feeding off their energy but the same result comes out most times, they are groomed to hate humanity or view it in a lesser station while praising the EDs every time like pets to an owner. They are the perfect candidates for subtly trying to start a regime that aims to "better humanity" by stripping it of its sovereignty and making everyone into a hive mind that is able to be controlled with ease.

Astral hybrids are essentially sleeper agents who can only be activated if the programming works successfully. Unlike physical hybrids, the astral hybrids are indistinguishable physically from those with non-spliced souls which makes it easier for these aliens to manipulate and groom into their images. The classic 'wolf in sheep's clothing' trope. For any astral hybrids who know who they are, whatever you do, do not let these beings into your life. They're only here to manipulate you into becoming a toy soldier to oppress the lives of innocent spirits trapped in this cruel simulation. No matter what parlor tricks they do, no matter what healing they did for you, no matter what they made you feel, DO NOT engage with them further or at all. Cut them out of your life and never look back. You aren't their slave, you are a sovereign spirit.