

SL: 6 steps separate you from achieving your full potential.

Hi, Jeanette!

I love how you want to genuinely help your followers, with free products and valuable posts, on their journey to become successful.

My favorites are the ones with motivational quotes like “Do things that scare you; that’s how you grow”, They can help anyone win over a bad mindset.

I’m looking for a business that has a positive impact and empowers ambitious women to become free in their lives.

After studying your brand, I think you might be THE business.

I have 5 specific ideas to improve your brand, which means:

1. More followers
2. More clients
3. More sales and money

The ideas I mentioned worked in similar markets for other successful women like Jordan Makelle.

That’s why I’m almost certain they’ll work for you as well.

Two of my ideas we can combine into one and that is improving the marketing of your “WEN business club”.

This means improving its landing page and sales page by implementing methods that connect your products in your client’s minds with their dreams/pains.

Yes, you do that but not everywhere where it can give results and where you are doing it, with my slight touch it can be better.

Do you want to discover the remaining ideas?

I’ll share them with you after your response.

Best Regards,

Łukasz Hartowicz
