 - USAID: It's not going to be gone. Rubio said it will just be further consolidated within the State Department. The truly naive position here is that the Trump administration is going to eliminate the ability to use aid as soft power and leverage over nations we want to meddle in.
Okay it's not just Rubio saying this either. It's also common sense. They're just rearranging various agencies to suit their agenda and the soft power imperialist function of USAID is not going away, if anything it'll just be reintegrated into the Security State apparatus under a new name.
Freezing/tossing out or privatizing (at best) the humanitarian functions vs. the nefarious CIA/soft power/imperialistic functions.
