

English I EOC Tutoring Information

English I End-Of-Course Testing Preparation has arrived! We have worked all year to cover all of the grammar and literature topics that will be on your EOC. Now, it is crunch time! Beginning January 4, the English I teachers will hold tutoring sessions after school on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday for two weeks from 3-4:15.

The topics and dates for English I EOC tutoring are as follows:

Date	Topic Covered	Instructor
Tuesday, January 4	Reading Strategies (main idea, inferences, predictions, etc)	Anderson
Wednesday, January 5	Vocabulary Strategies (context clues, prefixes, suffixes, etc.)	Anderson
Thursday, January 6	Diverse Genres, Purpose, Audience Literary Devices (allusion, symbolism, theme, tone)	Warren / Cumbee
Tuesday, January 11	Element of Narrative (POV, conflict, character types)	Birdyshaw
Wednesday, January 12	Evaluating texts and sources (viewpoint, persuasion, etc)	Birdyshaw
Thursday, January 13	Grammar: S-V Agreement, sentences combining, sentences structure, pronouns, etc. Grammar: punctuation, capitalization, spelling, etc.	Warren/ Cumbee

Attend 6 out of these EOC Tutoring sessions and receive a 100 TEST grade for the 2th

Nine Weeks of the Course! Come prepared to WORK. As this is extra time devoted by the teacher, you will be asked to leave upon any disruption and will NOT receive credit for the session if asked to leave.
